Fraternities Buttonhole 175

Betas, ATOs, Phi Delts Grab Most Women Are To Pledge Friday

After a busy week which held fun and frolics for many, 17 Idaho Fraternity men announced that they were going to pledge on Friday. Of these, five are members of the three largest fraternities in the University of Idaho. Three are in Alpha Tau Omega, two each in Phi Delta Theta and Phi Delta Theta.

Pledging for women is known as "buttonholing." No fraternities use this term in the sexual sense, although some fraternity boys think that way, especially if they are buttonholed by a pretty girl. Fraternity men can be buttonholed by anyone, but preferably by each of their pledges.

Lewis Court Houses Art, Architecture, Projector Affair

Art and architecture are featured in the Lewis Court Seminar room today. The art show, to be presented at 8:00 o'clock tonight, includes paintings, prints, and sculpture, all of which are the personal collection of Dr. Lewis. Dr. Lewis is the former president of the University of Idaho and a prominent figure in the American art world. The seminar room is located in the southwest corner of the Lewis Court building.

N.Y.A. Gives Work To Needy Idaho Students

New Dean of Men Informs Lake of Part-Time Jobs for Freshmen

Two hundred and thirty-eight freshmen who are employed for this year by the N.Y.A. will be given part-time jobs for the year. The jobs are for the purpose of helping to offset the cost of living for the students. The freshmen will be paid at the rate of $1.50 per hour. The jobs will be in various departments of the university, including the student body, the office of the dean of men, and the registrar's office.

Vandals Set Tryout Date

Vandals tryouts are scheduled for tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Vandal Hall. The team will be made up of the best students in the University of Idaho, and the coach will be Assistant Professor of Physical Education, Jim Green. The tryouts will be held in the large gymnasium of the university, and all students are encouraged to attend.

H. C. Dale Discusses Idaho Affairs

That college education should provide and accomplish objectives—namely, to lay the foundations of a broad and liberal culture; to provide every graduate with a body of information and training in one which will enable him to go out and make a living; and to seek out channels through which they may be developed the student's best traits of character and personality. The declaration made by President Harold C. Dale was last Wednesday.

Capt. Jack Lloyd of Normal and Piano前述 the Argonaut Office

Yesterday

We were just about the only people talking about Jack Lloyd, who was in the city at the time, when he arrived on campus this week. He is a fine looking, tall, blonde man with a wide grin and a quick, pleasant manner. He is just the type of person who can be expected to make a mark on the campus. Lloyd is a member of the Idaho State Rifle Team, and his presence on campus is sure to be a welcome addition to the student body.

President Discusses Pledge

President Dale discussed the pledge in a talk which was broadcast to the campus yesterday. He said that the pledge is an important part of the education of the students, and that it is necessary for the future of the university. He also discussed the importance of the pledge in relation to the current national situation.

Bronsan Discovers Trail Junction On Ancient Nezperce Route

Mariner Discovered Trail Used 1000 Years Before White Man

Bronsan, Idaho — A famous trail, which has been known to the Nezperce tribe for many years, was discovered by Capt. J. C. Brons, head of the American Museum of Natural History. The trail was found on September 28, 1938, during the course of a scientific expedition into the Boise National Forest.

The trail is approximately 10 miles long and runs along the base of the Snake River Canyon. It is estimated to have been used by the Nezperce for at least 1000 years before the arrival of white men.

YESTERDAY was a beautiful day for the baseball team. The team played their first game of the season against the local high school team. The game was close, but the team managed to come out on top. Their next game is scheduled for next week.
Tony Knop, two years a veteran at the end position, is an important cog in the Vandals' pass attack which Coach Ted Book hopes will carry the Idaho grid machine to a win over Oregon State college Saturday.

Gridsters! Please Coach Bank In Saturday Scrimmage

In the final heavy scrimmage before invading the Oregon State college come Saturday, Ted Book will put his Vandals into the Nide Term stadium in order to get a final chance to work anyone.

Demonstrating remarkably the noon school-weekend, the Vandals vamos machines clicked in excellent pass-action style to their satisfaction of coach and entranners.

The boys still need polishing and some perfect their timing but they will be ready for this Beaver.
