A special Idaho Homecoming — a solidly booked two-day reunion — will be going on with a whirl at the old U. of I. campus, and other parts of the home state, including at the University of Idaho campus, the state capital, and the nearby town of Moscow. The Homecoming activities will run from 7:00 p.m. on Friday, November 9, to 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, November 10.

The Homecoming is sponsored by the Alumni Association of the University of Idaho and is expected to attract over 5,000 alumni and friends of the university. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a dance, a football game, and a bonfire.

One of the highlights of the Homecoming will be the parade, which will feature floats, marching bands, and drill teams from the university and other local schools. The parade will begin at 11:00 a.m. on Friday and will proceed down the main street of Moscow.

The dance will be held at the university's student center, and will feature live music and a cash bar. The dance will begin at 7:00 p.m. and will continue until 1:00 a.m.

The football game will take place at the university's stadium, and will feature the university's football team against a local school. The game will begin at 2:00 p.m. and will be preceded by a halftime show featuring the university's marching band.

The bonfire will be held at the university's athletic field, and will feature a bonfire and live music. The bonfire will begin at 8:00 p.m.

In addition to the events listed above, there will be a variety of other activities taking place throughout the home state, including a homecoming picnic, a homecoming reception, and a homecoming dinner.

The Homecoming is an opportunity for alumni and friends of the university to come together and celebrate the rich history and traditions of the university. It is also an opportunity for current students to get to know their alumni and to learn about the opportunities available to them at the university.

We encourage all alumni and friends of the university to participate in the Homecoming activities and to support the university.

Bankmen Await 'Civil War' with Cougars in Homecoming Struggle

The opening of the season was celebrated today, for the 1938 Idaho State and Washington State colleges meet this afternoon when the Cougars and the Bengals contest on the field of Mike Akrich for the titles of first of the Pac Ten. A win by Wash State would mean a chance at a first place finish in the conference, while a Cougars win would put the Bengals in a strong position to capture the conference. The two teams have met twice before, the first time in 1930, and the second in 1935, but this year's contest promises to be the most closely fought. The Idaho State defense is expected to be strong, while the Bengal offense is expected to be potent.

The game is expected to be a close one, with both teams having good chances of winning. The Bengals will rely on their strong running game, while the Cougars will rely on their passing attack. The game is expected to be a high-scoring one, with both teams looking to put up big numbers.

Knap for Him a Victory

The Knapp for Him a Victory Award was presented to Idaho State's Bob Knapp for his outstanding performance in the game. Knapp, a running back, had a career-high 234 yards rushing and scored three touchdowns, leading the Bengals to a 27-14 victory over the Cougars. Knapp's performance was a testament to his hard work and dedication, and he is expected to continue to be a key player for the Bengals in future games.

Freshmen Enter Pilot Battle

Portland, Rated High; Squad Clash This Afternoon

Preceded for their first test of the season, the Idaho State freshmen squad will clash with the Theta Kappa chapter of Sigma Chi fraternity at McAlpine Field at 3 p.m. today. The Theta Kappa chapter is rated high and is expected to put up a strong fight. The Idaho State freshmen will need to rely on their speed and agility to outperform the Theta Kappa chapter.

UNABLE TO PARTICIPATE in the last home game for Tony, Kaney, one of the great souls in Idaho history, will view the game from the sidelines tomorrow — if he can see to see it all. Reports from Eugene last night were that Kaney is well, suffering the effects of a slight bean cream received in the Oregon game; his release from the hospital three in time to enjoy the Boise game seems improbable.

Let's win this one for Tony.

System Rating Gives Vandel Edge Saturday

The Vandel, and the No. 11 team of the Pacific Coast league, will be facing the Vandel, and the No. 11 team of the Pacific Coast league, in the game. The Vandel is expected to be the favorite, as they have a record of 5-0 and are unbeaten in conference play. The Vandel is expected to win the game, but the Bengals will not be taking their foot off the gas, as they are looking to improve their record and make a statement in the conference.

Vigilant flag-flying was the order of the night when the regal veterans of the 4th Pennsylvania line occupied the field in the mattress, Coach Blank continued to sing heartily of the “Hysteria” to honor the night's event. However, the event turned out to be a disappointment, as the gridironers failed to show up. Nevertheless, the night was a success, and the veterans were well entertained.

Hindrances facing a Vandals triumph tomorrow are these fast-breaking Cougars from across the line. Paul Collom, the sprees' coach, asserts his team has been working on the Trenton defense for weeks. Though small, he is a dangerous runner and passer. Below is a three-uppered Chuck Wool, another halfback, who makes a good running mate for Collom.

Students and Faculty Pave Idaho Victory For Homecoming Struggle: Bragen Hogs Has Doubts

Idaho fans are keeping an eye on the Hogs and the Washington State Cougars. It is a game that can be two-touchdown.

"I believe Idaho can win, and I think they should be playing Washington State. It is a game that will see a lot of touchdowns," says Mr. Jon. Rest, professor of psychology, in an interview with the Idaho Argonaut.

Bragen Comments on the game, Dr. Mr. Jon. Rest, psychology professor at Idaho, adds: "I think Idaho will have a better team."

Promising Baritone To Appear In Pullman Concert Soon

Landing Harfield, rising young American baritone, first appearance in Pullman will be this Saturday, Dec. 2.

Since his introduction over here by Mr. Harfield joyed the audience in the Ravine Theatre last fall, he has just been appointed to the faculty of the University of Washington, in Seattle.

Harfield, who is the son of a distinguished German composer, was born in Berlin in 1898. He studied at the famous Berlin Conservatory with Carl Reber, and thereafter went to the Konservatorium of Munich, where he continued his studies under Carl Kisch.

His voice, which is described as a "dark, rich," is highly praised by critics in Germany and other European countries. He has appeared in more than a hundred concerts and opera performances, and is considered one of the most promising young baritones in Europe.

He will appear in Pullman on Saturday night, at 7:30, in a recital program which will include songs of the best German masters, including Schubert, Schumann, and Brahms. The program will also feature a few items from the Italian repertoire, including arias from Puccini and Verdi.

Harfield is a member of the famous Verdi Society of Berlin and has been invited to participate in their annual festival at Venice.

The concert will be in the city auditorium and tickets are available at the Pullman box office.

representatives from all chapters of the organization across the country.

In addition to the recognition of the Pullman chapter, the Grand Council also recognized the chapters at Washington State University, University of Oregon, and the University of Idaho.

The Pullman chapter will be honored for their contributions to the organization and for their work in promoting the values of the fraternity.

This is the first time in the chapter's history that they have been honored in this manner.

They are looking forward to
