--- Why Not an Idaho Band? ---

Since this campus needs some broadminded tellers on what this campus needs, a "Unification of bands" could be a program upon which both Idaho bands could hopefully endorse. Definite steps have been taken this year to improve the morale of the Idaho bands, and it is the purpose of Idaho to make Idaho's bands perform better than the expected standards.

Who should play as a football team—the military band at Pocatello—and a separate band—a separate band at Pocatello? cooperatively, of course. Mr. Bernard Fitzgerald, director of the university bands, has determined to take his band to the annual band meeting in Seattle to see how other bands are playing. This year the military band and the Pocatello band have both been working on the preparation for the band programs.

--- More of Prominent Duos ---

EILEEN, ANDREWS and ARTHUR KLEIN have again been appointed to the prominent duo, and are hard at work preparing for their new program. These two are a real asset to the band, and their work is always a pleasure to hear.

--- Cinema Cinema ---

Real story of "The Great War" is a feature attraction for "Cinema Cinema" tomorrow. It is a moving picture show of the most thrilling scenes of the war. The com- pany takes the curtain at 7:30 Wednesday night and 2:15 Thursday afternoon.
