Opponents Defeat Four-Year Bill

After one of the hottest debates in the state, the Minnesota legislature yesterday defeated the four-year college bill by an overwhelming vote. The defeat was closer than was expected by the supporters of the bill, who had considered the vote of the legislature two years ago as the beginning of the end for the proposal. The bill was introduced this year by Representative Harry B. Strickland, who had been a strong supporter of the bill in previous sessions. The defeat was due in part to the opposition of the University of Minnesota, which had been a strong proponent of the bill in the past.

Game Students Rough It

Lawrence, Truck Driver, Johnson-Smith, Lowe-Clear Lead Presidential Duties

Latest of many moves to make ASU a more desirable destination for students was promulgated by the executive board Wednesday evening when it passed a resolution to decrease the tuition for Idaho students. The board's action was supported by the student body as a whole, according to the statement issued by the board.

Mercury Hits 6 Below Campus Gets Snow 18 Inches Deep

Wintery chills that followed the greasing did not stop the campus from getting a snow. The temperature was so low that the campus was covered in a blanket of snow. The snowfall was the first of the season, and it was expected to last for several days.

Into the Wilds of the Clearwater National Forest went one camera to snap this group of Idaho game management students into action on the serpentine, and the result is this photograph collection of scenes from the recent winter survey and research at Clearwater National Forest.
