Friday, Saturday Curtain Rises at 8 on Imposter's Antics in Auditorium

Moline's "Tartuffe," also known as "The Impostor," under the direction of Miss Jean Collier, will be presented in the university auditorium. Scratz may be reserved for entertainment purposes. Admission:

Tartuffe played by Helenium, is a more romantic, cunning, and malicious one of the stage. His slyness is greater, and his guile is more apparent in the way he deceives and manipulates people. The Tartuffe of the stage has a more menacing presence, which would make him more dangerous to society as a whole.

President Approves War Amendment

J. M. Kroll, Member of Original Idaho Christmas Shopping Committee

Petition approved by the Senate on December 6, 1938, was signed by 600 constituents from a wide area of the state. The petition asked that the war amendment be approved by the Idaho legislature. The amendment would have provided for the establishment of a war bond fund and the sale of war bonds by the state government. The petition was signed by a group of citizens who believed that the war was a necessary and just cause and that the war bond fund would provide a source of revenue for the state during the war.

A Curious Program

Representing an ox on campus, the Argonaut staff had a cow for the students to pet at the Argonaut office on December 9. The cow was a gift from the owner of the Argonaut office and was brought to the campus by the students. The cow was a popular attraction and many students took the opportunity to pet it. The cow was later sold to a local farmer and the proceeds were used to support the Argonaut.

Women Contribute Stability--Dale

The presence of many women constitute stability, reasonsability, and dignity to the field of business was the contention of President David C. Dale last night. President Dale was the guest speaker at the formal banquet of the Mineralhol. Club held at the Mineral hotel.

"Women are vitally great to the business world..." said President Dale. "Coming from the mining industry, I have seen the importance of women and their stabilization and stability. It is evident that the world is moving toward the world of women and I feel that we are moving along with them."

Dale added that women are the key to the future of the world. "As we move into the future, women will play a vital role in shaping the world."
