ANNOUNCEMENT

Since April 18, 1933, the women of Idaho have enjoyed the rare privilege of voting. Their names are on the roll, and they are registered as eligible to cast their votes, yet most of them are not taking advantage of this great opportunity. Many of them have heard about the importance of voting, but they are not sure how to do it. Some are afraid that they will not be able to express their opinions correctly. Others are not interested in politics, and they do not want to spend the time that it takes to vote. Some women do not think that their votes will make any difference. But the vote is one of the most important rights that we have as citizens. It is our duty to use it wisely. If we do not vote, we are giving up our right to have a voice in determining the laws that affect us. We are giving up our right to have a say in the government that rules us. We are giving up our right to have a say in our own future. So, ladies, don't let this happen. Vote on November 4th. Make sure that your name is on the roll, and that you are registered. Then go out and vote for the candidates who you think will best represent your interests. And remember, a vote for the candidates who you think will best represent your interests is a vote for the future of your country. A vote for the candidates who you think will best represent your interests is a vote for the future of your country. Novel Themes Give Dancers Cheer

An atmosphere of "Merry Old England" pervaded the elegant Roxy Ball Beautiful at the Mason Hotel last Saturday night. Local Student Union decorations were especially appropriate to the merrily decorated theme. Christmas trees, wreaths, gift baskets, gold, holly, and garlands.

The program featured a cornet solo, "Fingal's Cave," during intermission, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Margaret Waddell. Mr. Brown entertained with three numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Sr., and Mrs. Mrs. W. R. Martin, Jr., entertained a number of friends with a delightful dance. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin were in charge of the door prize.

The Nativity scenes were given in the center and in the corners of the room. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. J. Martin, Sr., and Mrs. Mrs. W. R. Martin, Jr., were in charge of the Nativity scenes. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. J. Martin, Sr., and Mrs. Mrs. W. R. Martin, Jr., were in charge of the Nativity scenes.

Kappà Plis Give Xmas Party

The Kappà Plis held their annual Christmas party on Saturday night, which was a great success. The room was beautifully decorated with Christmas decorations and the place was filled with guests who enjoyed the refreshments served.

The program consisted of a variety of musical numbers, including songs and carols, played by the local orchestra, and a dance floor. The atmosphere was lively and social, with guests mingling and enjoying each other's company.

The Holiday and New Year's Eve season is upon us, and it's a time for joy, celebration, and spending time with loved ones. Whether you prefer to spend the holidays at home or venture out to explore, there are plenty of opportunities to make merry and bright. So let's raise a glass to the holiday season, and may your days be filled with love, laughter, and lots of cheer!
Vandal Five to Meet Gonzaga in Last Pre-Conference Game

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock, the Vandal basketball team will meet Gonzaga in the last pre-conference home game. The Vandals showed flashes of good basketball at Mis- sissippi last week end and in splitting a double-header with Montana, winning the first game 26-22 and dropping the second, 21-34, are in perfect shape to mingle with the Bulldogs.

Bulldog fans have not only one game to look forward to, as the Bulldogs come to the field of play in Missoula. Gonzaga, with its combination of speed and power, is a highly dangerous team. The Bulldogs have been out to play against many of the teams that have lost in Missoula, and Gonzaga's record is not at all bad.

A new twist in the game will be the Vandal's pre-conference game of 1935. Thursday night's Vandal game will travel to Lewiston to meet the Idaho College of Idaho, and on December 16th, the Vandals will meet Gonzaga in Moscow. This is the second year the Vandals have been in Lewiston to play Idaho College.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Our wishes for your Christmas are most sincere.
