Letters from Home

From Nancy

Dear Mom and Dad,

I am a college student again, Nancy. At some point, I can't wait to write to you and tell you all about my progress. But for now, I am just happy to be here. I am a business major, and I am doing very well. I am taking a class called "Entrepreneurship," and I am really enjoying it. I am also working part-time at a coffee shop to help pay for my tuition. I hope you are doing well.

Love, Nancy

Faculty Women Meet

Members of the Faculty Women's Association held their final meeting of the year on October 25. The meeting was held in the Library Conference Room and was attended by over 50 members. The meeting included a presentation on the history of women's rights in the United States and a discussion about the role of women in higher education.

The meeting was led by Professor Emily Smith, who is the chair of the new Faculty Women's Association. "We are proud to have such a diverse group of women in our college," said Smith. "We believe that it is important to support each other and to work together to create a positive environment for all faculty members."}

Williamson Leads First Year Men

John Williamson, sophomore baseball player for William and Mary, and his freshman teammates, including T. T. Hahn, the state high school champion, finished well enough to land the team among the state high school champions. The new team was the result of careful planning that he planted to start the first game against a strong team last Sunday, April 15.

In addition to his work as a baseball player, T. T. Hahn was a member of the state tennis team. He picked the occasion for the team’s first race of the season. The program included the following races:
