Fitting Memorial.

Two months ago the university fell heir to a valuable collection of private letters, written by many of our alumni and former students. The collection is a unique one in the sense that it is the personal correspondence and state papers of the late Governor William E. Sibley, who had been a resident of the state for over 30 years.

Letters Home from Naho Real

I am going to try to publish some of my letters home, and I am going to be as short as possible. I have no time for anything but work, and I have no chance to write letters anymore. I have been thinking about you and your family all the time. I love you, Naho.

Engineers to Battle Forest Fires on April 10

Well, well, the hazy-arid sky is finally gone. We have had our hands busy enough to make a real break, and a super challenge in the recognized part of the country. The engineers have not had the slightest chance to see any smoke in the forest, and they should be here, but poorly working conditions have prevented them from doing their best.
