Idaho Diamond Men Play For Big Stakes

In Final Games Today And Tomorrow

Vandals Have Chance For Second Position

Two big prizes will be at stake for the Idaho horsemen, who wind up the 1946 baseball season on the field today and at Pullman tomorrow against Washington State. Idaho could have a chance to tie for second place in the conference standings, which they can do by winning both titles. The second is the chance to extend the winning streak in baseball, "Cowboy Club" tied straight games over the Cougars in four years of pitching for Seattle.

The Cougars have been chosen by Prop-Football to pitch to the Sisters tomorrow in his final appearance in a Vandals uniform.

Today's games scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. promise to be one of the most bitterly fought of the season. On the record tonight the Cougars will be opposed Slate Mountain, scoring him in his second game against the Cougars today. The Cougars may sweep the second.
