Veteran Cast Will Carry Roles

In ASUI Play

Lucretia Marshall, Mary Lou Beermann, and Many Others Will Play Dual Roles

This week, the students at the University of Idaho are watching the play, "The Portrait," by Noël Coward. The play has been a success for the ASUI Play, and they have continued to carry roles.

The play is about a young woman who is involved in a love affair with a married man. The woman is eventually caught and is forced to leave her lover. The play is set in London and Paris, and the characters include a young woman, a wealthy man, and a young man who is in love with the woman.

The play has been praised for its depiction of the characters and their relationships. The young woman is played by Lucretia Marshall, and the wealthy man is played by Mary Lou Beermann. The young man is played by Many Others.

The play is directed by James Smith, and the production is supported by the ASUI Play.

Council To Discuss Plans For 1941

Inter-church council plans to discuss with the Reverend Peter W. White, the organization of the city\'s religious agencies, and the Reverend Mr. White, president of the organization, the matter of organizing the proper religious agencies.

Planners for securing space for the church and for the church's building will be consulted at this meeting, and the Reverend Mr. White will report on expenses the church will have to consider.

Building Will Get First In 36 Years

About 460 licenses of all kinds will be issued to the building and grounds department, according to W. R. E. C. Land reports.

The first spring work that has been done since the building of the church in 1941 was completed in the fall of 1942, and the first license for the church will be issued in the fall of 1943.

Acres of Land Will Be Planted

About 40 acres of land will be planted in the fall of 1943, and the first license for the church will be issued in the fall of 1944.

Students Display Ingenuity

In Combating Weather

Every student in the field of war production has been given an opportunity to show his ingenuity in combating the weather. Some of the devices used by the students are:

- A windsock made of a piece of cloth and a stick.
- A raincoat made of a piece of canvas and a rubber band.
- A snow shovel made of a piece of wood and a handle.

These devices have been used to show the students that they can be as effective in combating the weather as they are in producing war material.

Broader Trails for the Trained Men

"Undoubtedly, applications for positions in the fields of engineering, mechanics, and education will be received in an even greater number in the near future," said Mr. W. C. D. Johnson, director of the Bureau of Employment and Training.

"Many of these positions will be in the fields of engineering, mechanics, and education. The students who have been trained in these fields will be placed in positions of responsibility.

Idaho Closes Season With 13-6 Loss to Utah

by Bob White

ELEVEN RUNDOWN SENIOR LINEMAN

The right-hand column of Idaho's 13-6 football history is a blank one, as the Vandals won their first conference game Tuesday. Idaho won 13-6 over Utah.

The Vandals had worked hard for the past week to prepare against the Utah Utes. Idaho's defense had been playing well, and Utah's offense had been struggling.

The game started off with a bang, as Idaho scored on its first drive. Utah had a chance to reply, but Idaho's defense held strong. The Vandals went into halftime with a 13-0 lead.

In the second half, Utah made a comeback attempt, but Idaho's defense held again. The game ended with a final score of 13-6 in favor of the Vandals.

Vandal Harriers Retain Pacific Coast Crown

Idaho's cross-country team retained its Pacific Coast title for the second year in a row. The Vandals won the conference championship on Friday, November 21st, and on Saturday they won the Pacific Coast Conference championship by a margin of 31 points.

The Vandals, led by seniors Mike Johnson and John Chisholm, dominated the race, with Johnson winning the race by a margin of 11 seconds. Chisholm finished second, just behind Johnson, and the Vandals' third runner, senior Tom Brown, finished third.

This year's Pacific Coast Conference title is the Vandals' third in a row, and they have only lost one meet since winning the title in 1986. The team's success is due in large part to their strong bond and teamwork.

The Vandals' next meet will be the NCAA West Regional on November 28th in Spokane, Washington. The top six teams from the regional will advance to the national championship meet on December 8th in San Diego, California.

Idaho Hoopmen Play Intraquad Game

Coach Forrest Thompson's versatile Hoopmen will hold their first intraquad game of the season tonight, in preparation for their contact with Westminster November 25th. The game is set for 8:15 p.m., between "Red" and "White" teams. Lightning, former Vandal star, will officiate. Every man on the squad will see action.

Oonlooker Compiles Timetable Of Typical Bulletin

By Tom Comptom

Everyone can advance a theory such as "men talk about business because they are not interested in politics."

I am here to uncover the answer to this theory, therefore, I present it as a bulletin for the benefit. It will reveal the unwritten rules of typical business men.

1. "Before I can talk to you, we must first know each other." This is frequently the first step in a business transaction.

2. "We are not interested in politics." This is often said in an attempt to avoid a discussion of the topic.

3. "We are interested in business." This is frequently used to justify the above statement.

4. "We are interested in our business." This is said to differentiate their business interests from political ones.

5. "We are interested in our clients." This is said to justify the above statement.

6. "We are interested in our stockholders." This is said to justify the above statement.

7. "We are interested in our profits." This is said to justify the above statement.

8. "We are interested in our employees." This is said to justify the above statement.

9. "We are interested in our community." This is said to justify the above statement.

10. "We are interested in our country." This is said to justify the above statement.
