Board Awards Letters; Discusses Bookstore

The ASUI executive board Tuesday night awarded the book to the Student Union

The decision about the book was discussed and the student

The book was awarded to the student union.

Town Men Crown "Miss Idaho"

Tomorrow Night

The tickets for the "Miss Idaho" pageant will go on sale Friday evening. Now that the show has been scheduled and that the contestants have been announced, the contest will be held on Tuesday evening in the college union ballroom.

Dean B. K. Johannessen

There is currently no mention of the ASUI executive board discussing the book in the provided text. However, it is clear that the board awarded the book to the Student Union.

Six Practice Code For Licenses

Six women have been arrested in the license code sponsored by the Student Union. The women, who are the license committee, were arrested Saturday night at 9 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

ROTC Juniors Get Final

The women were arrested for violating the practice code for licenses.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Nominate 6 for Student Council

The ASUI nominating committee announced that they were nominating 6 students for the Student Council.

Lawson To Recruit At On December 3

The Lawson Recruit Program will be held on December 3.

Copley Interviews

All interviews for the Lawson Recruit Program will be conducted on December 3.

Gen. Sales Growth In Group Drive

The sales growth in the group drive is expected to increase.

Galvin To Appear On December 18

Galvin will appear on December 18.

Home Ec. Girls Visit From Pullman

Six women from the Home Ec. department will visit from Pullman.

SPOKANE SPOKANE

The students from the Home Ec. department will visit from Pullman.

Keymen Will Hold Annual Drive

At a meeting Wednesday night, the Keymen will hold their annual drive.

GARON

The Keymen will hold their annual drive.
For Christmas Gifts at
Carter's Gay Gifts by LENTHERIC

We're Here About Board Awards

Class Hears Talk By Oppenheimer

Two CAUSE in You'll at o'clock «They

Good Old-Fashioned Turkey Dinner Sunday 12:00 - 3:30 At APPLING'S KETTE

Cigars - Cigarette - Pipes

CARTER'S DRUG STORE

Hutchinson Studio
Near the Campus

87 Salon Honors Awarded Hutchinson Portraits

Davids'

Where Fashion's Last Words Are Spoken First

You will be perfectly at ease in one of these perfectly tailored, smartly styled, double breasted, midnight blue Tuxedos, and the price is only $25

There are many smart, new dres accessories for formal wear. We will gladly show them all to you.

New Tuxs for Rent
Double Breasted - midnight blue, several styles.

Rental, $2.50
Hoopers Meet Whitman Tonight; Play Cheney Here Monday

Facing the Whitman Minimores tonight at Walla Walla, Idaho basketball coach Bob Bell is expecting a most competitive battle during a traditionally tricky pre-conference schedule in preparation for the '61 north- western basketball season. Idaho guards Eugene (Sam) and Howard (Buck) Christensen, Idaho’s top two men in points last night.

A clog of scouting was sighted for Upas, but throughout the Idaho game, but the guards did not score. Bob Baker’s Idaho team will take on the Black Hills boys tonight. Idaho has a solid sophomore group, and is expected to challenge for the Northwest title.

Executive Board Votes Grid Awards To Varsity, Freshmen

Thirty-three Vandal gridders have been voted the athletic department's annual gridiron awards for the 1960 season. According to Earl St. Clair, varsity manager, the graduates selected the awards for the first time. Their votes were tabulated and added to those of the Student Athlete Council, which voted at a meeting Saturday night.

The awards, selected by the Executive Board of the athletic department, are as follows:

HOCKEY SKATES

Gambling

With Winter... Comes Your Interest In These New Things

It will be worth your while to drive nine miles to see these very new and different ski and skate togs... .

Your Size $12.95

For the Ski Run or for Campus Wear on Blustery Days

These proficient old things will fit your requirements, so look into them. They're quiet and sound, not noisy and loud. They are well worth the price and will prove a real investment. Your size has the old muffler design. They are at our store.

(Aloha) $12.95 (Also you may "mix match" your old clothes with our new line of Downhill Fleece and Jackets.)

You will find these things at our Downtown Store or at the Sport Shop just off the Campus.

CAPTAIN LARESHOEY VISITS

Clym Perry A. Lanesick, who is taking a leave of absence from Idaho, was a visitor on the campus Friday. He is now connected with the draft board at Seattle.
The Idaho Argonaut, Friday, November 22, 1946

Workers Wanted

The staff heads of the Idaho Argonaut are pleased to announce that future and existing vacancies on the staff will be filled according to the following

Monday, November 25th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Saturday, November 30th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Sunday, December 1st

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Requirements for Applicants:

1. Interest. Candidates who wish positions merely to see if the points are worth their time and costs. They shall not be interviewed or accepted.

2. Loyalty. Applicants who think that the Argonaut is a club or a club to which they wish to belong should not apply.

3. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

4. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

5. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

6. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

7. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

8. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

The Idaho Argonaut
(Founded 1926)

Monday, November 25th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Saturday, November 30th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Sunday, December 1st

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Requirements for Applicants:

1. Interest. Candidates who wish positions merely to see if the points are worth their time and costs. They shall not be interviewed or accepted.

2. Loyalty. Applicants who think that the Argonaut is a club or a club to which they wish to belong should not apply.

3. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

4. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

5. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

6. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

7. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

8. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

The Idaho Argonaut
(Founded 1926)

Monday, November 25th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Saturday, November 30th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Sunday, December 1st

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Requirements for Applicants:

1. Interest. Candidates who wish positions merely to see if the points are worth their time and costs. They shall not be interviewed or accepted.

2. Loyalty. Applicants who think that the Argonaut is a club or a club to which they wish to belong should not apply.

3. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

4. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

5. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

6. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

7. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

8. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

The Idaho Argonaut
(Founded 1926)

Monday, November 25th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Saturday, November 30th

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Sunday, December 1st

9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Argonaut office. Members must submit all applications in writing and have them in as soon as possible.

Requirements for Applicants:

1. Interest. Candidates who wish positions merely to see if the points are worth their time and costs. They shall not be interviewed or accepted.

2. Loyalty. Applicants who think that the Argonaut is a club or a club to which they wish to belong should not apply.

3. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

4. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.

5. A spirit of cooperation. Candidates who wish to make the Argonaut a success must apply. There will be no exceptions.

6. A spirit of achievement. Candidates who can prove one or more of the following shall be considered:

a) They have an interest in journalism.

b) They have an interest in photography.