National President Gives Sigma Delta Chi Charter

Elsie men were initiated into Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic honor society at the Budget meeting of The Argonaut, Thursday, February 14th, and the following afternoon, February 15th. These two events were highlighted by the initiation of the Sigma Delta Chi chapter, organized to give an added strength to the newspaper industry, and to honor outstanding men and women in that field.

General Assembly Is Scheduled For Thursday Morning

Charles Lou immediately will proceed with the opening of the General Assembly meetings of Sigma Delta Chi's national officers at the Budget morning meeting of The Argonaut, according to the 1963 rules.

Peter Wolf

The chapter will become the 67th undergraduate chapter of Sigma Delta Chi. The chapter was initiated 14 years ago upon the formation of The Argonaut as an independent student publication.

Military Honorary Taps Forty-one At Ball Saturday

Forty-one R.O.T.C. cadets were inducted into the Idaho chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, a national honor society, national armed military school. They were the usual Military Ball Saturday night. The cadets were inducted in the group and included in the group: Scott Allen, John Math, Teri Hard, Patty Sherman, Patricia Clark, Paul J. Boys, Dennis George, Frank George, Robert F. Daniel, Mary Hays, Roy Ritter, Marytwin, Markham, Terri, Sonial K. Curreri, Charles C. Matthews, Dale C. Daniel, Mark M. Daniel, Donald M. Daniel, John Park, Donald W. Davis, Robert Ritter, William W. Davis, Robert T. Davis, Richard Hirt, Robert T. Davis, and James R. Hirt.

Faculty Turnover Covered

At a recent meeting of the Argonaut's faculty, President Bissell announced the university's faculty turnover for the 1963-64 academic year. The university's faculty turnover is below the average of the University of Washington.

Candelast Drive Extended; Contributions End Saturday

Mortar Board Holds Pow Wow

An Indian chief of his five "beavers" are making final plans for the Saturday night drive to the annual mortar powder drive at the annual mortar powder drive, according to the graduation. The powder drive will be held at the Idaho State Fairgrounds, and will be supervised by Martin Norris, head of the Idaho State Fairgrounds, and will be staffed by Martin Norris, head of the Idaho State Fairgrounds, and will be staffed by Martin Norris, head of the Idaho State Fairgrounds, and will be staffed by Martin Norris, head of the Idaho State Fairgrounds, and will be staffed by Martin Norris, head of the Idaho State Fairgrounds.
Research Foundation Will Protect Interests of University Inventors

All University of Idaho research work that involves something with potential for commercial or industrial development will be covered by a new foundation. The Foundation will safeguard the rights of the inventors. A series of courses in advanced research will be taught at the university.

49 Military Ball Much Different From First

The 1935 Military Ball was held Saturday night in the Idaho Union Building. The dance was held in the Idaho Union Building.

Food Costs

President of the Idaho Union Building, the Idaho Union Building, the Idaho Union Building, the Idaho Union Building.

Inniversary

Students who have been married for one year will be honored in a special event. The event will be held in the Idaho Union Building.

Perching, Plunging, Parenting

Birds will be featured in a special event at the Idaho Union Building. The event will be held in the Idaho Union Building.

The GEM SHOP

A special event will be held in the Idaho Union Building. The event will feature special deals on jewelry.

Korter's Milk Ice Cream Cottage Cheese

Korter's Milk Ice Cream Cottage Cheese will be featured in a special event at the Idaho Union Building. The event will be held in the Idaho Union Building.

Van Heusen's Shirts

Van Heusen's Shirts will be featured in a special event at the Idaho Union Building. The event will be held in the Idaho Union Building.

K/var

Mallory Willard

Dr. J. C. Hulsey's OPTOMETRIST

Analytical Eye Examinations

Dr. J. C. Hulsey's OPTOMETRIST will be featured in a special event at the Idaho Union Building. The event will be held in the Idaho Union Building.

The Idaho Argonaut

Van Heusen's Shirts

Mallory Willard

Dr. J. C. Hulsey's OPTOMETRIST will be featured in a special event at the Idaho Union Building. The event will be held in the Idaho Union Building.

The Idaho Argonaut
Reds Peril World Security
With Actions Near Berlin

A message report received by the leader of a prominent group of in-continental labor leaders yesterday that a report of saboteur or a possible spy near Berlin has been received. The report is that a German labor leader, under the pseudonym of "Jack Stone," has been seen in close association with a military intelligence officer. The German labor leader is known to be a close associate of the military officer, and the report indicates that he may be a spy or saboteur.

The German labor leader is known to have been in contact with the military officer in recent weeks. The report also indicates that the military officer may have been involved in the planning of a large espionage operation.

The report has been received by the German authorities, who are investigating the matter. The labor leader has been detained, and the military officer is currently under arrest. The investigation is ongoing.

Summer Camp Has Need For Leaders

Preliminary plans are being made for the upcoming summer camp, which will take place near the city. The camp will be open to all children in the area, and will provide a safe and fun environment for children to enjoy the outdoors. The camp will be staffed by trained and experienced leaders, who will be responsible for ensuring the safety and well-being of all participants.

The camp will offer a variety of activities, including hiking, swimming, and games. The schedule will be published soon, and interested parents are encouraged to apply for leadership positions.

Prospective KOIU Announcers Given Standard Audition

Prospective KOIU announcers were given standard auditions yesterday to determine their suitability for the position. The auditions were held in the KOIU studio, and were conducted by the station's management. The auditions included a reading of a script, and a demonstration of the announcer's ability to deliver the script in a clear and engaging manner.

The station's management was impressed with the quality of the auditions, and has decided to hire the successful candidates. The new announcers will begin their duties in the near future.

Lawyer Honorary Elects Smith Head

A lawyer's association held its annual meeting yesterday, and elected a new president. The new president is Smith, who replaces Johnson as the head of the association. The association has been active in promoting the interests of the legal community, and has been involved in a number of important cases.

The association's new president has promised to continue the organization's tradition of excellence, and to work tirelessly to ensure that the rights of all citizens are protected.

Church News

Newseum Club

A new club was formed yesterday, the Newseum Club. The club will focus on the role of the press in society, and will discuss current events and the impact of the media on society. The club will meet on a regular basis, and will feature guest speakers and discussions.

The club's first meeting was held yesterday evening, and was attended by more than 50 members. The meeting featured a presentation by Dr. Smith, who discussed the role of the press in promoting democracy.

Campus Observers Valentine’s Day Without

Youth observers on the University's campus have been monitoring the activities of students on Valentine's Day. The observers have been tracking the activities of students who have chosen to spend the day without their significant others. The observers have found that many students have been spending the day in solitude, and have been engaging in a variety of activities.

The observers have noted that many students have been spending the day in solitary activities, such as reading, watching TV, or spending time with friends. The observers have found that many students have been enjoying the day, and have been appreciating the opportunity to spend quality time alone.

Veterinary Media Does Not Include Care Of Families

A group of veterinarians has been working to raise awareness of the importance of care of families. The group has been advocating for the inclusion of care of families in veterinary education and practice.

The group has been lobbying for changes in veterinary education, and has been working to ensure that veterinary students are trained in the importance of care of families. The group has been successful in its efforts, and has seen a number of changes in veterinary education in recent years.

Bunyan-Land Trip To Be Presented

The upcoming "Bunyan-Land" trip will take place next weekend. The trip will include visits to a number of Bunyan-related sites, including the "Land of Bunyan" and "Bob-O-Link." The trip will be held in the fall, and will be open to all interested participants.

The trip will be led by Dr. Johnson, who is a well-known expert on Bunyan. The trip will include visits to a number of Bunyan-related sites, including the "Land of Bunyan" and "Bob-O-Link." The trip will be open to all interested participants.

KOU8 May Present IFC Discussion

A discussion about the role of the American Indian in the American Indian Movement will be presented by KOU8. The discussion will feature a panel of experts, who will discuss the history and significance of the American Indian Movement.

The discussion will be held next month, and will be open to all interested participants. The discussion will be held in the KOU8 studio, and will be broadcast live.

Lawyer Honorary Elects Smith Head

A lawyer's association held its annual meeting yesterday, and elected a new president. The new president is Smith, who replaces Johnson as the head of the association. The association has been active in promoting the interests of the legal community, and has been involved in a number of important cases.

The association's new president has promised to continue the organization's tradition of excellence, and to work tirelessly to ensure that the rights of all citizens are protected.

Church News

Newseum Club

A new club was formed yesterday, the Newseum Club. The club will focus on the role of the press in society, and will discuss current events and the impact of the media on society. The club will meet on a regular basis, and will feature guest speakers and discussions.

The club's first meeting was held yesterday evening, and was attended by more than 50 members. The meeting featured a presentation by Dr. Smith, who discussed the role of the press in promoting democracy.

three university journalism students were recently recognized in a national competition sponsored by the American Society of Newspaper Editors. The students, who are members of the University's journalism program, were selected for their outstanding work in reporting and editing.

The students were recognized for their reporting on a story about the impact of poverty on the lives of children in the city. The students' reporting, which was published in the University's student newspaper, was praised for its depth and its sensitivity to the issue of poverty.

The students were presented with a certificate of recognition, and their work was featured in the University's newsletter. The students were also given a copy of the students' work, which will be included in the students' portfolio.

Newseum Club

A new club was formed yesterday, the Newseum Club. The club will focus on the role of the press in society, and will discuss current events and the impact of the media on society. The club will meet on a regular basis, and will feature guest speakers and discussions.

The club's first meeting was held yesterday evening, and was attended by more than 50 members. The meeting featured a presentation by Dr. Smith, who discussed the role of the press in promoting democracy.

three university journalism students were recently recognized in a national competition sponsored by the American Society of Newspaper Editors. The students, who are members of the University's journalism program, were selected for their outstanding work in reporting and editing.

The students were recognized for their reporting on a story about the impact of poverty on the lives of children in the city. The students' reporting, which was published in the University's student newspaper, was praised for its depth and its sensitivity to the issue of poverty.

The students were presented with a certificate of recognition, and their work was featured in the University's newsletter. The students were also given a copy of the students' work, which will be included in the students' portfolio.