Big Chance Tonight

By Don Thompson

Why doesn’t Hartley have a better season? He is in his best shot at making the NCAA meet and he has a pretty good takeoff from the blocks.

It sounds like a simple question to ask, but there is a big reason Hartley can’t go to the NCAA meet. That is the real drawback is that he doesn’t have a good enough stab at the U.S. Olympic Team.

Hartley’s best event is the 1500-meter freestyle. He has a good chance to make the U.S. Olympic Team in that event, but he doesn’t have the chance to make the NCAA meet.

We asked coach Fred Budge, who has had Hartley in his four years, why he didn’t make the NCAA meet. He said that Hartley was a little out of shape and that he just didn’t have the chance to make the event.

Our organization has always tried to be competitive in the Northwest and we used to be proud of our athletes, but we have changed our philosophy in recent years. Our athletes have decided to make the NCAA meet for the first time and we are happy about that.

The primary problem is that Hartley could not be satisfied with his results at the NCAA meet and he didn’t take it too far.

Men’s Taste First Action As Oregon Teams Challenge

Kris Kriens, varsity basketball player, has been chosen to be the first player in the history of the University of Idaho to make the first appearance in the NCAA meet.

Kriens, who is a senior, has been chosen to make the first appearance in the NCAA meet. He has been chosen to make the appearance because he has shown the most improvement in his performances.

The Oregon teams are expected to make the appearance and Hartley is expected to make the appearance as well.

Vandal Riders Plea Winter Sleep Sleigh Ride

There was a snowstorm on the campus of the University of Idaho last night and it was so cold that the students decided to make the appearance.
