Council Appoints Ramsey Assistant Football Coach

Appointment of Houseful (Bud) Ramsey, famous pun-catcher of Texas Tech and the professional Philadelphia football team, has been announced today by President J. E. Buchanan, following approval of the statement by the Board of Directors.

Bud Ramsey will enable the team to build up the defense line and bring in another outstanding player, making the 1950 season of considerable interest. He was formerly on the staff of the University of Kansas and played football European style.

It is planned that this famous pun-catcher will begin his football career immediately in the fall.

The Board is sure that Bud will add greatly to the interest of the season and that he can be counted on to help the team in their role of the year.

It is expected that Bud will continue his work on the board in the future.

Spring Planners Busy

The "fourth" and eighth held the last day or two can prove a playing thing — a football game near and a few glimpses of a necessary forgotten. Some of them were having forth some perfectly anticipated happenings, so the week was not too bad.

But now, the sessions come. The students are clearing off around the campus. They must be on their way to spring activities and the excitement of spring sports.

Monday morning began in an even bigger and more impressive manner than any event occurred before. The students walked briskly into the warmest and most comfortable building. They entered the classroom, where they found their seats and began work.

Pledge Reveals Private Diary

One of the secrets of student life is the private diary. It is a place where students can express their thoughts and feelings freely. The students in this school are very active in this activity. They love to write about their experiences and feelings, and they are very proud of their diaries.

Twelfth Night Stage Crew Holds Special Friday

Consisting of light, sound, and visual design, this special edition of 'Twelfth Night' was performed on Saturday night under the direction of the Stage Crew. The stage crew members, including set, lighting, sound, and costume designers, worked together to create a magical environment for the performance. Several key scenes from the play, such as the banquet scene, were highlighted.

With costumes meticulously crafted and props expertly arranged, the entire production came together to bring Shakespeare's masterpiece to life on the Our Lady of Good Counsel auditorium stage.

Gymnastics Please Basketball Fans Saturday Evening

Basketball fans who attended the second annual basketball tournament at La Salle High School were in for a treat after the match. The tournament, featuring local teams, attracted fans from across the city. With excitement building throughout the day, the event concluded with a memorable game.

Law Society Sponsoring 22 New Pledges

Phil Delta, the law society, welcomed 22 new pledges to its ranks on Thursday morning. The pledges, selected from a pool of applicants, will now begin their journey as part of the Phi Delta chapter. The ceremony included speeches, presentations, and a formal induction ceremony.

Student Trustee Plan Two Summer Trips

Student trustee, who is responsible for planning future events and coordinating with the university administration, will be focusing on organizing two summer trips. The first trip is scheduled for June 18 at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Sixteen Women But For Fencing

Sixteen women were among the competitors in the recent fencing tournament. The event, held at the Idaho Argonaut, showcased the skills of female fencers from various schools. With a strong emphasis on sportsmanship and competition, the tournament concluded with a final round of matches.

Preparing for Student Trustee's trip is a big challenge, and the organizers are working hard to ensure that the experience is enjoyable for all participants. The second trip is planned for later in the summer, with details yet to be announced.
