Golden Fleece Banquet

The Argument: Why should we be concerned about the welfare of our students?

The Golden Fleece is a student organization that focuses on providing scholarships and financial assistance to underprivileged students. They believe that higher education is not just a privilege but a necessity for personal growth and societal development.

By supporting Golden Fleece, you are contributing to the success and well-being of students who may not have had the same opportunities. Their mission is to ensure that every student has the chance to pursue their education, regardless of their financial situation.

Join us in supporting Golden Fleece and help make a difference in the lives of our students. Together, we can ensure that every student has the opportunity to reach their full potential.

The Golden Fleece Banquet is a wonderful way to celebrate their achievements and raise funds for their cause. It's an opportunity to network, have fun, and make a meaningful impact on the lives of our students.

Let's come together and make a difference. Support the Golden Fleece today!
Cool, Cold, And Criminal

The cold white fields stood out sharply against the dark, shadowy trees that flanked the road. The wind howled through the trees, its screams echoing in the silent, frigid air.

The man walked alone, his breath visible in the chill. He knew he was being watched, but he didn't care. He had done this before, and he would do it again. This was his territory, and he was the king.

The man reached into his pocket, pulled out a small knife, and wiped the blade on his sleeve. He knew the job was waiting for him, and he was ready to do it.

The man stepped out of the shadows, his knife glinting in the dim light. He was ready to strike.
Weekend Initiation Dances Spotlight
A Cold, Dreary Weathered Campus

Storybook characters were seen on the campus Friday night when the Annual Knights of Columbus Perpetual Council No. 1369 of Idaho Falls sponsored the “Harlem-Holiday” Ball. The evening came on Saturday on a pitch black night. However, the weather was not a deterrent to the 300 area youth who attended the ball, and the festivities were a grand success.

Paula Nuss, Idaho Falls, "was the name of the annual initiation dance for the students of the College of St. Mary’s. The festivities were held at the Idaho Falls High School. The students were dressed in their finest attire and the event was well attended. The weather was not a hindrance, and the festivities were a grand success.

Radio Music To Be Presented Thursday-Friday

Peter the First, Russian film star, was the guest of honor at the Idaho Falls High School Ball, held on Thursday night. The ball was hosted by the Perpetual Council No. 1369 of the Catholic Church.

A mid-week letters service will be held at the Church, Thursday at 7 p.m. The event will be attended by the entire student body.

George Turner, head of the 1200 Jackson, will address the guests at the Ball. Idaho Falls Sigma Nu members will be in attendance at the event.

In addition, music will be provided by National Broadcasting Company and the Idaho State University Symphony Orchestra.

Engineers Display Diesel Power Unit

Through the cooperative efforts of the Idaho State University and the College of St. Mary’s, the Diesel Power Unit was displayed at the Idaho Falls High School Ball. The Diesel Power Unit was a great success and was enjoyed by all.

Linda L. Smith, Story: Courtesy Idaho Falls Herald Tribune

Navy Schedules Selection Boards

Welcome: Navy Personnel Selection Board will be held on Saturday, March 5, at 10 a.m. in the Idaho Falls High School. The board consists of Navy personnel, and is responsible for the selection of individuals for the U.S. Navy.

The board will include representatives from various departments, such as Personnel, Training, and Medical. The board will be responsible for assessing the applicants and making recommendations for selection.

The board will consist of a panel of officers and enlisted personnel, who will be responsible for assessing the applicants and making recommendations for selection.

Infirmary

Students who are unable to attend school due to illness may need to be excused from school. This can be done by contacting the school nurse or the school administrator. The school nurse or administrator will then determine if the student is eligible for a sick leave.

If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.

The school will then process the sick leave form and will determine if the student is eligible for sick leave. If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.

The school will then process the sick leave form and will determine if the student is eligible for sick leave. If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.

The school will then process the sick leave form and will determine if the student is eligible for sick leave. If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.

The school will then process the sick leave form and will determine if the student is eligible for sick leave. If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.

The school will then process the sick leave form and will determine if the student is eligible for sick leave. If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.

The school will then process the sick leave form and will determine if the student is eligible for sick leave. If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.

The school will then process the sick leave form and will determine if the student is eligible for sick leave. If the student is eligible for sick leave, the student will be excused from school. The student will then need to complete a sick leave form, which will be signed by the school nurse or administrator. The student will then need to give the form to their parents or guardians. The parents or guardians will then need to sign the form and return it to the school.
Palouse Country To Rock With Two Big Ring Cards; Idaho Travels To Cheney

Boating takes sporting spotlight this weekend in the Palouse. Headliner for the town is the 10th annual Palouse Open, with Idaho and Montana participating in the event. The big draw is the Palouse Open fishing tournament, which will be held on Saturday. The tournament is open to all fishermen, regardless of age or skill level. The entry fee is $15 per boat, and the top three finishers will receive cash prizes of $1,000, $500, and $300 respectively. The tournament begins at 6 a.m. and ends at 3 p.m. The fishing area will be限定 to the Palouse River from Palouse to Grangeville. Paddlers can expect to find a variety of fish species in the river, including trout, bass, and catfish. The Palouse River is known for its challenging rapids and beautiful scenery. The fishing tournament is a great opportunity for boaters to experience the natural beauty of the Palouse River while testing their skills. So, grab your fishing gear, pack a picnic lunch, and head to the Palouse River for a day of fun and competition.

Vandal Babe Hoopsters

Dionne Mardian Face-Season Game With NICE Loggers

Dionne Mardian, one of the top basketball players in the state, will be playing in the NICE Logger Tournament this weekend. Mardian, a senior at South High School, is the leading scorer in the state and is expected to draw a large crowd of spectators. The tournament will be held at the South High School gymnasium and will feature several of the top high school basketball teams in the state. Mardian is known for his quick dribbling, accurate shooting, and ability to get to the basket. He is expected to lead his team to victory and help them secure the championship. The tournament begins at 10 a.m. on Saturday and runs through Sunday. Don't miss this exciting event!

Babes Complete Successful Year Winning Over Preppers

Steve Byrnes, head coach of the Babes' basketball team, is pleased with the season's results. The team has won all of its games and is currently ranked number one in the state. Byrnes attributes the team's success to the players' hard work and dedication. "Our players have worked tirelessly throughout the season," said Byrnes. "They have given their all and have helped the team achieve this success." The Babes will continue to compete in upcoming tournaments and hope to continue their winning streak. Stay tuned for updates on their performances.

First Gymnastics Contest In Sight

Frankel and Ryder

The first annual Frankel and Ryder gymastics tournament is scheduled to take place next weekend. The tournament will feature teams from various schools and will be held at the State University gymnasium. The tournament will consist of various events such as floor exercises, balance beam, and vault. The Frankel and Ryder teams have been working hard to prepare for the competition and are eager to show off their skills. The tournament is open to the public and tickets are available for purchase at the door. Don't miss this exciting event and support your favorite team!

Vandal Helmet On Public Display For First Time

The Vandal Helmet, a historic piece of football memorabilia, will be on public display for the first time in years. The helmet was worn by the Vandal football team during the 1909 season and is now on display at the State University museum. The Vandal Helmet is a valuable artifact that represents the history and tradition of the Vandal football program. It is a testament to the hard work and dedication of past players and is a reminder of the university's rich athletic heritage. The Vandal Helmet will be on display for the weekend and is open to the public for viewing.

Time Out By COSTELLO

The short visit of that false spring was just enough to frustrate most of the spring plants before they had a chance to get in a few warm-up days on warm weather. They are already responding to the point of humidity when, bang, down came a fresh layer of snow.

Frank James, course professor, talks about the turf, was getting a good nailing down the day before the coming of the storms. So covering was signs of spring that plus were to come again Saturday.

Greater Features

Every day, in fact, the galaxy appears to be a little larger at the latter part of February with Joe Costello, including the appearance of his pet, a white cat. Facilities were thrown open to Tuendal students which has had quite a few good rounds. Getting back to the idea of spring, Costello says, "While spring does not seem to be around much, it seems to be growing in importance to the university. The students are eagerly looking forward to the arrival of spring and its many benefits."