DO You Read The News?

Well, what's news today? Do you know? Does anyone care? On every day's front page, South Korea plots 60 miles into North Korean territory. Communism a threat, something different—the feeling of history, our hero, and that's the news.

Stalin deciding now is the time to strike. United Nations will be the third World War. We'll hear it some day. The United States will decide.

Newspaper are the ones that can afford to tell us. We can't afford to tell us. We can't afford to tell us.

A Typical Day In The Life Of A Homecoming Candidate

By: Grace Strongen

You might think that there is a lot of work to be done in the preparation for a Homecoming. There is. But what you don't understand is the amount of work that goes into a Homecoming. It is a lot of hard work, but it is worth it in the end.

The first thing that goes into a Homecoming is the planning. The planning is done by a committee of four members. The committee is made up of the Homecoming Queen, the Homecoming King, the Homecoming Queen's Maid of Honor, and the Homecoming King's Maid of Honor. The planning is done in the months leading up to the Homecoming.

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
The Idaho Vandal fans were out in full strength for their first game of the season against the Washington Huskies. The Vandal offense was led by quarterback Steve Cowan, who threw for 220 yards and two touchdowns. The Vandal defense held the Huskies to just 160 yards of total offense. The Vandal victory was an important step towards their goal of winning the Mountain West Conference and making the NCAA football playoffs.

Idaho Running Back Will Face Air-Minded Westerners

The Idaho Vandals running back, Jimmie Harris, has the opportunity to shine against the Air-Minded Westerners. Harris has been a key player for the Vandals, averaging 6.2 yards per carry and scoring four touchdowns in the first five games of the season. The Westerners have a strong defense, allowing just 126.2 yards per game, but Harris is confident in his abilities and is ready to show the nation what he can do.

Idaho Opens Boxing Slate Against LSU

The Idaho Vandals boxing team opened their season against LSU, hoping to build on their success from last year. The Vandals have a strong roster, with several returning athletes, including lightweight Samantha Rodriguez and middleweight Alex Johnson. The LSU Tigers are also a strong team, with a mix of experienced and young athletes. The match was激烈，with Rodriguez winning by majority decision and Johnson losing by split decision. The Vandals are looking forward to their next match against Ole Miss.

Vandals Fly South For Texas Encounter: Aerial Defense Improved

The Vandals will face the Texas Longhorns in a critical game this weekend. The Vandals defense has been a strong point this season, allowing just 10.5 points per game. The Longhorns have a potent offense, averaging 34.5 points per game, so the Vandals will need to be on top of their game. The key will be stopping Texas quarterback Sam Smith, who has thrown for 2,500 yards and 20 touchdowns this season. If the Vandals can limit Smith's production, they will have a good chance of winning the game.
