Homecoming Committees, C bees, Coaches and Student Body:
The ASUI, Homecoming committee, pays its most sincere appreciation to the Homecoming committee for the fine job they did in equaling the excitement of the previous Homecoming.

Homecoming was held at the University of Idaho.

KUOI and KIDJ radio stations, completely unfeigned, are the windows of the World. Without their help we would have been totally lost. The ASU T Band is a part of their life's work.

We wish to thank everyone throughout the University of Idaho for supporting us in this venture. We would have been helpless if it had not been for their help. We wish to express our gratitude to everyone who helped us.

H. H. Stitting, President

Idaho Dumps Oregon Ducks For 14-0 Homecoming Win

Vandals Snap Webfoots Jinx With First Victory Since 1926

By Karl Kipper

Coach Eltie Howell's Vandals paid off one of the Oregon football jinxes which have plagued the Webfoots, 14-0. A quick pass from quarterback Bob Heiney to Allan Wells in the third quarter, the Vandals' first score, set the tone for the game.

The Vandals dominated the game from the outset, scoring on their first possession and never allowing the Ducks a chance to get back into the game. The defense held the Ducks to a paltry 20 yards of total offense, while the Vandals piled up 218 yards on the ground.

Vandals Opponents Suffer Rough Afternoon

Three of the five games scheduled against the Vandals were played on Saturday. The Oregon offense was held under 100 yards for the first time in its history. The Vandals' defense was led by Bob Heiney, who had 9 tackles for loss.

The Vandals' offense was led by quarterback Bob Heiney, who completed 14 of 19 passes for 185 yards and 3 touchdowns. The Vandals' running game was also strong, with Allan Wells rushing for 105 yards and 2 touchdowns on 14 carries.

The Oregon defense was completely overmatched, allowing the Vandals to gain 218 yards on 43 rushes.

Memoirs of a Vandal

By John Johnson

Barber University of Idaho freshman football squad was unseated yesterday in the opening game of the 1960 season. The Vandal offense, under the direction of quarterback Bob Heiney, was dominated by the Vandals' defense, which allowed only 28 yards of total offense to the Oregon defense.

The Vandals scored twice in the first quarter, with a field goal from Mike Jones and a touchdown from Allan Wells. The Vandals added a third touchdown in the second quarter, with a 62-yard pass from Bob Heiney to Allan Wells.
