CROCODILE TEARS

More than a week after the end of the basketball tournament, a story that had been given a prominent place in yesterday's issue of the Daily Trojan shows the persistence of the sport editor.

"Our team is the best in the country," said Coach Edson, "and we're going to win the tournament." But the Varsity newspaper seems to have forgotten his words.

"What's the matter with our team?" asked a visitor to the newspaper office. "Are we going to lose the tournament?"

"No, we're going to win," replied Coach Edson. "But we'll have to work hard to do it." And work hard the Varsity football team did.

KEEPER SAVES SPARRING

Heavy weights are knocked out of Sparrow's nest as a result of the recent death of a famous boxer.

"He was the best," said Coach Edson, "and we're going to miss him."

"What's going to happen to the Varsity newspaper now?"

"I don't know," said Coach Edson. "But we're going to work hard to win the tournament." And work hard the Varsity football team did.

Prepares To Take On Northern Division Wrestlers

Permutations are being made for the upcoming NCAA wrestling championships which will take place in January. Each team will send six wrestlers to the championships and the team that wins the most matches will be declared the champion.

The Varsity newspaper has been given the task of choosing the six wrestlers from the Idaho team that will take part in the championships.

"We have a good team," said Coach Edson. "But we're going to have to work hard to win the championship."
