In the spring a young man's fancy lightly and the spring form the earth a cover for the weak and the frail. The days are longer and the nights are shorter. The sun is higher in the sky and the world is full of promise. In the spring, the world is full of promise.

In London, there are murmurs already concerning Uncle John's great love, the lovely Miss Alice Jankowski. He has long been smitten by her beauty and her kindness, and now his heart is set on her. He is determined to win her heart and make her his own.

The spring is a time of hope and renewal. It is a time for new beginnings and new possibilities. In the spring, everything is possible.

In the spring, the world is full of promise.
