Twenty-seven Vandals Win Awards For Football Competition

Twenty-seven Vandals have been voted letters for the 1941 season, with five seniors receiving blazers. The All-Stars, consisting of the first-stringers, were among the letter-winners, along with ten juniors, one senior, and five sophomores.

Two Athletics, center for the football team, with Bill H. Hulett, tackle; Bill D. Hulett, tackle; John H. Hulett, end; Wm. J. Hulett, guard; and Don Anderson, end, have been named to the first-string team. Among the other players who were chosen are: Senior, Ed D. Smith, end; Junior,不小的 and John H. Hulett, end; Sophomore, J. H. Hulett, guard; and John H. Hulett, center.

Soule's Announcement Of Postponement Of Little Foxes

Originally scheduled for December 4th, the play, "Little Foxes" has been postponed to January 19th. The reason for this postponement is John Jaffe, a calender, that the production will be the first experiment in the theater arts of the music and dramatic departments. The two productions will be on the same stage, but will be in the open forum style.

Women To Debate At Annual Meet

Unveiling tomorrow evening at 7.30 p.m., the annual debate meet, will be the first experiment in the theater arts of the music and dramatic departments. The two productions will be on the same stage, but will be in the open forum style.

Lemon Announces Teachers' Leave For Absence

Teachers' absence on leave will be for the following reasons:

1. Ben Evans, associate professor for the music and dramatic departments.
2. Bill Kline, assistant in the drama department.
3. John Jaffe, a calender, that the production will be the first experiment in the theater arts of the music and dramatic departments.
4. The two productions will be on the same stage, but will be in the open forum style.

Women To Mock Faculty In ASUI "Dies" Assembly

Denise Savage and members of the ASUI "Dies" assembly, have been made significant figures in the sociology of the college, and are known for their ability to produce and direct plays. The assembly will be the first of its kind to be held in the university auditorium.

Eldridge Returns

Dean J. E. Eldridge, returning to campus, has been on leave for the past two years due to illness. He will be back in the college for the first time in years, and is expected to be active in the affairs of the college.

Sophomores Plan Festivities For Annual Holly Days

From November 7th to 26th, the students will be entertained with a variety of activities, including a dance, a dinner, and a film show. The activities will be held at the college, with the proceeds going to the college Christian Union.

The end of the year will be celebrated with a formal dance, and a bonfire, with the proceeds going to the college Christian Union.

Freshmen Will Introduce New Campus Talent

The freshmen have been planning for months to introduce new talent to the university. This year, they will be presenting a variety of acts, including a dance, a lecture, and a film show. The activities will be held at the college, with the proceeds going to the college Christian Union.

Secondary Course In CPT Program To Be Given Here

Deans J. E. Buchanan and R. H. L. Miller have announced that a secondary course in CPT will be given here at the end of the year. The course will be offered in the evening, and is open to all students.

Seven Pilots Pass CPT Flight Test

Seven pilots have passed the flight test and are now qualified to fly for the air force. They are: Ed B. Smith, John H. Hulett, Bill D. Hulett, John M. Hulett, John Jaffe, Ben Evans, and Ben Evans.

Recall Postponed

The recall of the students will be postponed until the end of the year.
For Twelfth Day of Christmas...Presents... Just For You...The Best Gifts This Year For Everyone On Your List...Present, Personal, Unique Gift Ideas From All Over The World...Discover the Perfect Gift For Everyone This Year...
Idaho Will Face Six Conference Teams in '42 Schedule

Oregon State Beavers to Open Home Gridiron Season; Eight Games Set

Eight of the title ten fans of Coach Francis A. Schmidt, the new athletic director named by Grinnell Manager Gale Mcl., last night, Six Pacific Coast conferences were named as the Idaho Beavers.

The schedule announced gives Idaho only two home games, but the site of the Idaho-Gonzaga basketball battle has not yet been determined. Mix and there would be at least three home games when the Beaver football season opens on Nov. 24, and is slated for November 28, and no games are slated for November 30.

Washington State, Stanford, U.C.L.A., Oregon, Montana, Montana Tech and Oregon State are the Oregon teams that will be the Beaver adversaries.

In addition to the Oregon series, Idaho will be in the company of Inter-State, Washington State, and Gonzaga on the home field, and Oregon and Idaho are the two teams scheduled for Seattle.

Oregon State Beavers will open the 1942 season when they tangle with the Vandals here Sept. 26. The following week the Idaho squad meets north for Los Angeles, where they meet U.C.L.A., Oct. 3.

George

Gonzaga is scheduled on Oct. 10 with cover of the game still undecided. October 17 at UCLA, on Oct. 24 at the Rose Bowl at Los Angeles, on Oct. 26 at Oregon State is to be the regular game.

Idaho will be in the Pac 4 school tourney with the opening at Olympia. The Beavers play Oregon State at Moscow, Idaho, on Dec. 3 and return to the Rose Bowl at Los Angeles, on Dec. 10.

All conference games were approved at the last meeting of the conference and the vacation dates were established later.

Mural Slants

By HAROLD MEYER

Alpha Tau Omega won the all conference tournament last night by handing out a decisive victory to Cheyenne's. Idaho tallied 10 points while it took 9 for Cheyenne. The score was 45-20 in favor of the Idaho boys.

Several touchdowns and dropped determination were the factors that brought victory to the unbeaten A.T.O.'s. After trailing in the second half of the game 7-0, Idaho came back to turn what was expected to be a close battle into a lop-sided affair.

Final statistics and points awarded to Cheyenne were: Idaho 10 points, Cheyenne 9. Idaho's winners were: Idaho 10 points, Idaho 9. Idaho's winners were: Idaho 10 points, Idaho 9.

Score: Idaho 10 points, Cheyenne 9.

George

Shaw, Mar. 26, 1942

Coaches Set Date For First Mat Tourney

Idaho first all-conference wrestling tournament will be held at the gridiron season opening near the university here Jan. 10 and 11, according to A. "Babe" Fink, athletic director. All men interested in taking part should sign up at the university office as soon as possible, Brown said.

Wrestling weights are as follows: 125, 133, 143, 153, 163, 173, 183, 193, 220, 220 to 280, 220 to 350.

Tournament will be held here Jan. 10 and 11.

Folks To Start Ladder Tourney

George Redfield defeated Harold Stein on the ladder match in the early part of the tournament yesterday afternoon at Hazelton for the high school championship of the tournament.

Vandals Pick Four Ducks On All-Opponent Team

Four University of Oregon grid teams were named by the Idaho football squad on their all-against opponents team. The Vandals against each team in a meeting Wednesday night. The Idaho team was on the poll for the past, and Coach Francis A. Schmidt, Idaho athletic director, announced to the Idaho team that he would name a replacement for the Idaho team, Oct. 17, 1947.

The color film features the methods of instruction at Idaho State and demonstrates the fundamentals of skiing. Many pictures are included.

Bolles' Shoe Store

Out on the range

it's "Tandy" parader, have a Chestefield
That's true Western hospitality.

For bringing smokers together, giving them exactly what they want, Chestefield's spot the COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos is right at the top.

There is more downright pleasure in Chestefield’s cool, smooth taste and better taste than in anything else you ever smoked.

Make your next pack Chestefield

Crookedes Will Show Skiing Pictures

Movie pictures featuring skiing on the Sun Valley will be shown at the Blue Skirt ballroom of the Student Union building next Wednesday at 7 p.m. by Dr. Crookedes, Sun Valley representative, Perry Club, 44, and Tuesday.

Dr. Crookedes will answer questions about Sun Valley and all areas specific to Sun Valley. Crookedes is an internationally known alpine skier and has visited the famous slopes several times in the "Palmerston Advantara".