Gilmur Leads Huskies To 44-37 Victory

Late Drive Stops Idaho; Teams Meet Tonight

Rallying in the last three minutes of play, Washington's Huskies defeated Idaho 44-37 in the first of a two-game series here. Both teams will meet again tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

With Roy Gilmur pouring the baskets in for the Huskies the Washington club's late drive proved too much for Idaho.

Von Hopkins, however, had the Vandal out in front with 6 ½ minutes to go with a long right header, his only basket of the game, Gilmur tipped in two baskets back to tie the contest.

The debut showed the Vandal starter into the conference with a victory against seven fellow rivals, while the Huskies moved back into a tie for the top spot in the division with Washington State.

Washington took an early lead in the opening minutes of the game as Vandal shooters missed the contest. But the Redskins came back to pull within in two points of the Huskies at the half-time which the Washington ahead 18-17.

Idaho tied the game up with nine minutes gone in the second half but 18-18 when Blase made, then went into the lead on three back-to-back points."

First put Idaho on the board 19-18, a foul and field goal but Hopkins' chunked shot reverberated off the ring. Then came the hot Bucky Smith.

Loss of Roy Turner, big blood center, patient in the first period, hurt Vandal chances. Turner, currently leading division scorers in average points per game, put only six points on the board in the first half. Eleven fouls were called against the Idaho and six on the Huskies.

Gilmur, working beautifully under the boards, scored 19 points for game scoring honors, Turner, Idaho's leading man, dropped 15 points off the board, but the Washingtonian led the first nine.

Lack of a chance to match the height of Gilmur after Turner left first half, was a factor in the Idaho last second 37-34.

Field goals were even, with each team making 17, but the Washingtonian margin came in 16 successful free throws. Officials were Miller, Piluso and Davey Adam.

Next Friday the rally committee, a live wire organization this year that promotes halftime entertainment at the annual fall games, announced that its first nickel hop on the Idaho campus in order to raise funds to refurbish the decrepit notebook of committee members. Originally billed as a "nickel hop" it has been changed to a "Salvamnt Army benefit" as the Red Cross stipulates that on programs so designated the proceeds go to the charitable organization. By donating 50 cents of the proceeds to the Salvation Army, the rally group can pocket half the proceeds.

Although a standing ASUI committee, the rally committee is making the move from the ASUI treasury. The $60 given the rally committee by the Spokane Athletic Round Table for the first of the year's sport, is in addition to the recently completed activities, have been made by contributions from individual members of the rally committee. The chairman of the committee is the. The entire ride at the halftime intermission the unique rider at the halftime intermission of the basketball game; he spent 42.50 on the ride and god members of the committee dug into their wallets and contributed $2.50 to two old warmup jackets for the new yellow queens.

Yet, what kind of thanks do they get? None!

Strictly Technical

Heads of all colleges and schools might well study the program of reading that Dean Peidston Howard of the college of law has set up in his college for student participation this next semester. It should be surveyed not so much for the particularly books that are suggested, but rather for the underlying basis of its inception.

Students in the college of law must read during the semester books outside of their required law studies. These books are all related to the field of law, but are selected to give the student a broad historical and philosophical background.

The profession of law, Dean Howard writes in introducing the program to his students, "is more than the practice a technical art" There is the law for the project, and it may be applied to any of our special fields today. That there are difficulties, some of them very great, we must admit. Undoubtedly our students are somewhat subects highly essential to maintain standards. Students are driven to a high degree of specialization in order that they may survive the intense competition.

THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1942

M.OUNSHINE.

The music faculty members let down their hair last Friday afternoon at a Red Cross fund raising musical and the public ate it up. Artists like Beaus and Going were 1502. for the music faculty members killed high as Flavera girls whisked Alvar Becher belted in at a high note. While the music faculty members beared the long mile to Spokane high school, they listened to the music, good with the amount of humor and mixed with high Mississippi.

Several students have indicated that they would like to see the program put on at a University. The music faculty has learned the program, the costumes, and the music; and if administrative difficulties have been taken by the "higher ups." Jason's committee was for only one staging of the program before the people goes "cold" and musicians lose their enthusiasm in over-contributing their talents gratis for Cross and enjoyment of students.

"Near the Campus"
Rally Committee Completes Plans for "Nickel Hop"

Social chairman of men's house and women's house met on Monday to finalize plans for Idaho's first "Nickel Hop" to be held Friday night from 9 to 11:30 p.m. at every women's house and the campus.

Preliminary order of a giant exchange dance, the hop will be conducted so that men may periodically file into a house or hall to another, while women stay in each house during the entire men who pass through.

Fees for the affair have been set at a nickel for 15 minutes of dance, with five minute intervals while men change house; a certain number of women will remain in each house and no more men may enter than the number of women there.

"There will definitely be men's stag lines," rally committee members emphasized after yesterday's meeting, and explained that the number of women in each house would probably exceed the number of men allowed to enter.

"No Dates." Proceeds from the hop will be channeled equally between the Union Army and the student athletic fund, a neat egg used for half-time entertainment, rent, team expenses, etc.

"There will be no advance ticket sale, and nickels must be paid at the door.

"No other activity has been scheduled for the Saturday night, so that every woman's house and hall will have an opportunity to show off its best," said "No Dates," the ultimate handed down by the committee.

Phillips To Place Emphasis On Singing At Games

A resurgence of spirit through the medium of choral songs is in store at the Idaho-Washington football game today according to Yell King Biba Phillips. Emphasis will be placed on singing school songs and singing will be accompanied by the Pep Band.

"Oh, Vandalas, On," "Here We Have Idaho," "We're Here to Win," and "Three are the numbers that will be sung, all sung by the Pep Band," she said. He said that most students were familiar with the words of these numbers, but two rarely used songs would also be sung.

Students are requested to bring copies of the two songs following: "Here's a Toast to Idaho," and "Come Fellows!"

Here's A Toast to Idaho, She's the U for You May her fame go marching On All the long years through May we forever glory Her standards shall wave on high, Here's to Idaho...
