New Women Will Attend Activities Tea Friday

ASTP Unit Reaches Full Strength on Idaho Campus

With the addition of new members, ASTP 908 began its fall term meeting. Mr. M. E. Gudel, advisor, addressed the group and welcomed the new members to the organization. Miss Mary Brown will serve as the Secretary-Treasurer. The group announced that they are planning to become a chapter of ASTP.

Narcissus Finds Her Time in Infamy

The fourth issue of "Narcissus" was published recently and is available for purchase at the Idaho Argonaut office. Each issue contains a variety of articles, including poetry, fiction, and essays, written by members of the Idaho campus community. The contents of the fourth issue include a story by D. T. Rarden, "The Last leaf," and a poem by A. J. Smith, "Violets for the Dead." The next issue will be published in March.

Bottlenose Speaks To Student Body

Bottlenose, the newly installed mascot for the University of Idaho, was introduced to the student body on Tuesday morning. The ceremony took place in the Court of Honor, and was attended by faculty, staff, and students. Bottlenose, a bottlenose dolphin, was brought to campus by Dr. John L. Thompson, director of the Marine Science Institute. Bottlenose is expected to be a popular addition to the Idaho campus community.

A Day in the Life of a College Student

The typical day of a college student varies depending on their major and personal preferences. A typical day for a student majoring in the arts might include attending classes in the morning, followed by a trip to the studio or a rehearsal in the evening. A student majoring in business, on the other hand, might have meetings or work hours during the day, with classes scheduled in the evening. Regardless of the major, most students spend their time on campus, either in the library, studying, or attending classes.

Beecher Releases Complete List Of New Singers

Thirty-six new singers were announced on the radio on Monday morning. The singers include singers from the Idaho campus, as well as singers from other parts of the United States. The list includes both experienced singers and new talent. The new singers will be featured on the radio show "Beecher's Tunes," hosted by Beecher Beene, a popular radio personality.

1943 Genee Recipient Honors Award

A first-time winner of the Genee Award, a prize established in 1941, has been announced. The award is given to the best organist in the United States, and this year's winner is Frank B. Miller. Miller, a student at the University of Idaho, was chosen for his outstanding organ performance. The award ceremony will be held on Friday evening, and Miller will be presented with a gold medal and a check for $500.

Marigold Fransen Spends Time In Infamy

Doris was found and rescued by a local police officer. She was taken to the hospital for treatment, where she was given fluids and painkillers. She is currently recovering at home with her family. The incident highlights the importance of being alert and aware of one's surroundings, especially in the vicinity of the campus.

Director Selects Cast For Play Of Dickens' Life

The cast of "A Christmas Carol" has been selected, and the production will be directed by Charlie Brown. The cast includes members of the Idaho campus community, as well as members of the local community. The play will be presented on December 2nd and 3rd, and tickets are available at the box office.

Bloomer Releases Complete List Of New Singers

Thirty-six new singers were announced on the radio on Monday morning. The singers include singers from the Idaho campus, as well as singers from other parts of the United States. The list includes both experienced singers and new talent. The new singers will be featured on the radio show "Beecher's Tunes," hosted by Beecher Beene, a popular radio personality.

Pharaohs Name Candidates For Coming Elections

Pharaohs has announced a list of candidates for the upcoming election. The candidates include both men and women, and they represent a diverse range of backgrounds and experiences. The election will take place on November 3rd, and voting will be held in the Student Union Building. The results will be announced on November 5th.

Pharaohs Name Candidates For Coming Elections

Pharaohs has announced a list of candidates for the upcoming election. The candidates include both men and women, and they represent a diverse range of backgrounds and experiences. The election will take place on November 3rd, and voting will be held in the Student Union Building. The results will be announced on November 5th.

Work on the Idaho campus community. The contents of the fourth issue include a story by D. T. Rarden, "The Last leaf," and a poem by A. J. Smith, "Violets for the Dead." The next issue will be published in March.

Bottlenose Speaks To Student Body

Bottlenose, the newly installed mascot for the University of Idaho, was introduced to the student body on Tuesday morning. The ceremony took place in the Court of Honor, and was attended by faculty, staff, and students. Bottlenose, a bottlenose dolphin, was brought to campus by Dr. John L. Thompson, director of the Marine Science Institute. Bottlenose is expected to be a popular addition to the Idaho campus community.

A Day in the Life of a College Student

The typical day of a college student varies depending on their major and personal preferences. A typical day for a student majoring in the arts might include attending classes in the morning, followed by a trip to the studio or a rehearsal in the evening. A student majoring in business, on the other hand, might have meetings or work hours during the day, with classes scheduled in the evening. Regardless of the major, most students spend their time on campus, either in the library, studying, or attending classes.

Beecher Releases Complete List Of New Singers

Thirty-six new singers were announced on the radio on Monday morning. The singers include singers from the Idaho campus, as well as singers from other parts of the United States. The list includes both experienced singers and new talent. The new singers will be featured on the radio show "Beecher's Tunes," hosted by Beecher Beene, a popular radio personality.

1943 Genee Recipient Honors Award

A first-time winner of the Genee Award, a prize established in 1941, has been announced. The award is given to the best organist in the United States, and this year's winner is Frank B. Miller. Miller, a student at the University of Idaho, was chosen for his outstanding organ performance. The award ceremony will be held on Friday evening, and Miller will be presented with a gold medal and a check for $500.

Marigold Fransen Spends Time In Infamy

Doris was found and rescued by a local police officer. She was taken to the hospital for treatment, where she was given fluids and painkillers. She is currently recovering at home with her family. The incident highlights the importance of being alert and aware of one's surroundings, especially in the vicinity of the campus.

Director Selects Cast For Play Of Dickens' Life

The cast of "A Christmas Carol" has been selected, and the production will be directed by Charlie Brown. The cast includes members of the Idaho campus community, as well as members of the local community. The play will be presented on December 2nd and 3rd, and tickets are available at the box office.

Bloomer Releases Complete List Of New Singers

Thirty-six new singers were announced on the radio on Monday morning. The singers include singers from the Idaho campus, as well as singers from other parts of the United States. The list includes both experienced singers and new talent. The new singers will be featured on the radio show "Beecher's Tunes," hosted by Beecher Beene, a popular radio personality.

1943 Genee Recipient Honors Award

A first-time winner of the Genee Award, a prize established in 1941, has been announced. The award is given to the best organist in the United States, and this year's winner is Frank B. Miller. Miller, a student at the University of Idaho, was chosen for his outstanding organ performance. The award ceremony will be held on Friday evening, and Miller will be presented with a gold medal and a check for $500.
Lt. Lorin D. Parkins Comes From Military Family

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Lt. Lorin D. Parkins, one of the oldest men in the United States, has been stationed at the Johnson Field, Kansas, for several months. He is the son of Lt. J. Louis J. D. Parkins, of the United States Navy, who served in the Pacific during World War II.

Lt. Parkins is a native of Kansas and attended Kansas State University. He was commissioned in the Navy in 1942 and served in the South Pacific during World War II. After the war, he served in various capacities before being assigned to the Johnson Field, Kansas.

Lt. Parkins is married to the former Grace Williams, also of Kansas. They have three children: John, 15; Mary, 13; and Robert, 11.

Hunk Fatigue

By W. D. Brown

The symptoms of hunk fatigue are well known to all of us. It is characterized by a lack of energy, lack of motivation, and a general feeling of burnout.

Hunk fatigue can be caused by a variety of factors, including long hours of work, lack of sleep, and stress.

The best way to combat hunk fatigue is to take breaks, get enough sleep, and manage your stress levels.

Exchange Sorority House Parties For ASPM Men

By M. J. O. S. Anderson

The ASPM men's sorority has decided to exchange sorority house parties for ASPM men.

This change is being made in order to provide more opportunities for socializing and building relationships within the ASPM community.

The ASPM men's sorority consists of several chapters across the United States, and this change is being made to provide a more inclusive and welcoming environment for all members.

Red Cross Ready To Aid Men Here

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

The Red Cross is ready to aid men in this area. They have a branch office in the city and are available to help.

If you need assistance, please contact the Red Cross.

The ASTU Angle

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

The ASTU angle is a perspective on the events and issues affecting the American Student Union. This week's angle focuses on the importance of student activism.

The ASTU angle is written by J. Louis J. D. Parkins, a member of the ASTU board.

Ensign Green Tells Of Navy Duties

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Ensign Green tells of his duties as a member of the Navy. He describes the various tasks he performs, including patrolling, keeping watch, and maintaining the ship's records.

Green also discusses the importance of discipline and teamwork in the Navy.

Del Tufo Relates Furlough Follies

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Del Tufo relates his experiences of furloughing from the Navy. He describes his time off, including visiting friends and family, and enjoying his time away from the military.

Tufo also talks about the regulations and restrictions that come with furloughs.

Canada Draws Many ASTU Students During Furlough

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Canada draws many ASTU students during furlough. Many students choose to travel to Canada to take advantage of the lower cost of living and the many cultural attractions.

Furlough is an important time for students to explore new places and experiences.

NO POINTS NEEDED

For:

YOUR MIDNIGHT SNACKS

Schroeter's Bakery

117 East Third

Meet Tommy

And The Gang at

The Oriole Nest

Fountain Service Breakfast Specials

Exchange Sorority House Parties For ASPM Men

By M. J. O. S. Anderson

The ASPM men's sorority has decided to exchange sorority house parties for ASPM men.

This change is being made in order to provide more opportunities for socializing and building relationships within the ASPM community.

The ASPM men's sorority consists of several chapters across the United States, and this change is being made to provide a more inclusive and welcoming environment for all members.

Red Cross Ready To Aid Men Here

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

The Red Cross is ready to aid men in this area. They have a branch office in the city and are available to help.

If you need assistance, please contact the Red Cross.

The ASTU Angle

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

The ASTU angle is a perspective on the events and issues affecting the American Student Union. This week's angle focuses on the importance of student activism.

The ASTU angle is written by J. Louis J. D. Parkins, a member of the ASTU board.

Ensign Green Tells Of Navy Duties

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Ensign Green tells of his duties as a member of the Navy. He describes the various tasks he performs, including patrolling, keeping watch, and maintaining the ship's records.

Green also discusses the importance of discipline and teamwork in the Navy.

Del Tufo Relates Furlough Follies

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Del Tufo relates his experiences of furloughing from the Navy. He describes his time off, including visiting friends and family, and enjoying his time away from the military.

Tufo also talks about the regulations and restrictions that come with furloughs.

Canada Draws Many ASTU Students During Furlough

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Canada draws many ASTU students during furlough. Many students choose to travel to Canada to take advantage of the lower cost of living and the many cultural attractions.

Furlough is an important time for students to explore new places and experiences.

NO POINTS NEEDED

For:

YOUR MIDNIGHT SNACKS

Schroeter's Bakery

117 East Third

Meet Tommy

And The Gang at

The Oriole Nest

Fountain Service Breakfast Specials

Exchange Sorority House Parties For ASPM Men

By M. J. O. S. Anderson

The ASPM men's sorority has decided to exchange sorority house parties for ASPM men.

This change is being made in order to provide more opportunities for socializing and building relationships within the ASPM community.

The ASPM men's sorority consists of several chapters across the United States, and this change is being made to provide a more inclusive and welcoming environment for all members.

Red Cross Ready To Aid Men Here

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

The Red Cross is ready to aid men in this area. They have a branch office in the city and are available to help.

If you need assistance, please contact the Red Cross.

The ASTU Angle

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

The ASTU angle is a perspective on the events and issues affecting the American Student Union. This week's angle focuses on the importance of student activism.

The ASTU angle is written by J. Louis J. D. Parkins, a member of the ASTU board.

Ensign Green Tells Of Navy Duties

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Ensign Green tells of his duties as a member of the Navy. He describes the various tasks he performs, including patrolling, keeping watch, and maintaining the ship's records.

Green also discusses the importance of discipline and teamwork in the Navy.

Del Tufo Relates Furlough Follies

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Del Tufo relates his experiences of furloughing from the Navy. He describes his time off, including visiting friends and family, and enjoying his time away from the military.

Tufo also talks about the regulations and restrictions that come with furloughs.

Canada Draws Many ASTU Students During Furlough

By J. Louis J. D. Parkins

Canada draws many ASTU students during furlough. Many students choose to travel to Canada to take advantage of the lower cost of living and the many cultural attractions.

Furlough is an important time for students to explore new places and experiences.
Mike Ryan urges men to turn out for cross country track meet.

Idaho Athletes Now Star In Grim War Game

By TOM YAN

Athletes from Idaho who have completed the grimmest part of their college careers with trials for the past season and who have won the National Championships and have been hailed as the best in the world, are scheduled to make a final tour of the world this spring. Their record in the past season has been nothing short of amazing, and their performances on the track have been described as "astounding." The Idaho team, under the leadership of Coach Williams, will be honored at a banquet tonight in honor of their successful season.

Football Forecasts By Tom Ryan

Weather Delays WA Tourney

Gold and WAMC tournaments on. The weather in the forecast for the Idaho team's tourney is not too favorable. The team is scheduled to play a round robin tournament for the honor of the best team, and the game will be played in the heat of the sun. The game will be played in the heat of the sun. The temperature will be up to 70 degrees.

Army Teams Plan Football Game For October 3

On Saturday, October 3, the Army team will play the Idaho team in a football game. The game will be played at the Idaho State Fairgrounds. Army will have a chance to win the title of the Idaho champion. The Idaho team will have a chance to win the title of the Idaho champion.

Catholics Appoint New Officers

On Monday, October 5, the Catholics will appoint new officers. The officers will be appointed by the Catholics' club. The club will meet at the Idaho State Fairgrounds to appoint new officers. The officers will be appointed by the Catholics' club. The club will meet at the Idaho State Fairgrounds to appoint new officers. The officers will be appointed by the Catholics' club. The club will meet at the Idaho State Fairgrounds to appoint new officers.

Drive Will Start For WSSF Fund

On Tuesday, October 6, the drive will start for the WSSF fund. The drive will be held on the Idaho State Fairgrounds. The proceeds of the drive will be used to support the Catholic Student Union. The Catholic Student Union will use the proceeds of the drive to support the Catholic Student Union.