Hired a mad college. We're all wrong aren't we? The teacher. They can be a little fun, but there's a lot of wisdom in it this. Discussion.

The people of Moscow are such typical. They are a quiet people with kind neighbors. They are quiet, clean, church-going, farm-type civilians. All the people here are clean, polite, and free to keep clean and free. Or, they're dirty. This is working for the Navy. They're people.

The R. O. T. C. Heh! Just wait until they get the uniforms on and announce the blue tops. Heh! THE ARMY. A fine bunch of boys. This is one point on which we agree. They've covered everything and haven't disclosed one thing to the secret. So, we'll once again our opinion of the victory of Moscow in one tense sentence by simply saying, "We like here; don't you?"

We wish to extend to you our Sincere Appreciation and Regards for your business during these trying times.

Best of Luck To You

Cougar Startles Women; Found On Beta Porch

Have you ever at 3:10 on Sunday morning been awakened by an incessant ringing of telephone bells? well, I have. Of course, one never wants to be at that hour of the morning, but some other person in the same town may be. Being a kind-hearted soul, I got up and went downstairs. A woman, I suppose, had an idea I was in the sleeping porch when she had me play the prank. Do you know I probably did not, but you certainly don't tell it if you didn't.

THERE ENTERED visitors to the Kappa Alphat house this week are Mary Elizabeth Blythe of Crofite, Mary Thersten of Portland, and Helen Johnson of Welser.
