Orchestra Presents Final Concert

With the applause of 17 Idaho and Montana students still ringing in their ears, the orchestra returned Saturday afternoon to the stage of the University Union and presented a three-act program of music. And it ended in two farewell concerts:

Students Propose Chamber of Commerce

In response to the need for a united front on the part of the university students, a Junior conference of students from the University of Idaho, Montana and the University of Colorado, and the University of Arizona for the purpose of forming a united student chamber of commerce, was held in the University Union on Saturday afternoon.

The presentations included talks on the importance of the students' chamber of commerce and its relation to the state's economy. The meeting was attended by representatives from all three universities, and the officers elected were: President, Garwood F. Johnson, University of Idaho; Vice-President, J. B. Green, University of Colorado; Secretary, H. W. M. Thompson, University of Arizona. The meeting adjourned for the present and reconvened at a later date.

Nitrous Oxide and Herbicides

Three students from the University of Idaho, Montana and the University of Colorado, and the University of Arizona for the purpose of forming a united student chamber of commerce, were presented to the University Union on Saturday afternoon. The presentations included talks on the importance of the students' chamber of commerce and its relation to the state's economy. The meeting was attended by representatives from all three universities, and the officers elected were: President, Garwood F. Johnson, University of Idaho; Vice-President, J. B. Green, University of Colorado; Secretary, H. W. M. Thompson, University of Arizona. The meeting adjourned for the present and reconvened at a later date.

On the whole, the meeting was a success. The students' chamber of commerce was formed, and arrangements were made for a meeting to be held in the University Union on Saturday afternoon.

Directory

New 36-page supplement to the directory was at six a.m. today. Copies of the supplement are being distributed throughout the university. The supplement includes names of all students, faculty members, and staff members of the university. The supplement also includes all departments, offices, and organizations of the university.

Committee Tells Advantages Of Student Unions

Students are being urged to join the Student Union, which is a national organization of college students. The advantages of belonging to the Student Union are many, and include the following:

1. It provides a means for students to express their opinions and to have a voice in the decision-making process of the university.

2. It provides a means for students to organize and to take action on issues that affect them.

3. It provides a means for students to receive information and to be informed about issues that affect them.

4. It provides a means for students to socialize and to meet other students.

5. It provides a means for students to have fun and to enjoy themselves.

6. It provides a means for students to have a sense of community and to feel connected to the university.

The Student Union is a national organization of college students, and it is open to all students who wish to join.
