Biggest Rumor of the Week

One of the most popular rumors circulating about the college these days is this claim bit of gossip: A certain number of students are said to be after certain girls, but the matter will be kept from the public by those in authority. The women concerned, their friends, or even the boys themselves. This “scoop” on the vice that the student body is most interested in the average student, and who is the one who will be the next to appear in the student body?

Professor Accepts Position As WSC

Dr. R. J. Dahlin, secretary of the university faculty, has been selected to accept a position at Washington State College (WSC) as head of the university. Dr. Dahlin will take up his duties as head of the university on July 1, when he will assume the office of the university's president.
