President Buchanan Discusses Athletic Situation In Letter To Alumni

Forty-Five Attend HYM Meeting

Approximately 45 people attended the first open meeting of the Student Athletic Club on March 29. A. C. Buchanan spoke of the student athletic situation, the latter subject being identified with the situation at Idaho athletically as a means of preventing the exploitation of student athletes.

Buchanan probably is the first Idaho student athlete to have been designated by the student athletic organization as an interested and interested observer of the general student athletic situation. Buchanan's remarks may have been made on the basis of his personal observation of the situation at GWU, where he was the student athletic director.

When the season started it was agreed to go for the Pacific Coast Championship. The Cougars from Pullman, Washington, the University of Southern California and Stanford University were expected to be strong contests for the championship. The Cougars and the Stanford Bears are the only teams which can beat the Vandals. The games between the teams are set up for the championship and the Washington State University team is expected to be a strong speed and will be a good test for the Vandals. The Vandals have won all of their games so far this season. They are coming off a loss to the University of Oregon last week.

Washington: 3-5-0

Oregon, Washington State and Oregon State have all won their games so far this season. Washington has lost all of their games so far this season. The Vandals will be facing the Oregon State Beavers next week.

The Vandals will be playing in the annual Beavers vs. Vikings game next week. The game is set up for a high-scoring game and is expected to be a good test for the Vandals. The game is scheduled for Saturday, November 17th at 2:00 PM at the University of Oregon.

Jr. Vandals Seek Revenge In North Idaho

With hopes of avenging ending the season on a sour note, the Vandals junior varsity basketball team will meet to discuss their plans for the upcoming season. The team is looking to bounce back from a disappointing season and is determined to make the playoffs.

The team will be heading to North Idaho for a game against the Sandpoint Vikings. The team is hoping to use this game as a stepping stone for their upcoming season.

The team is looking to make a strong statement against the Vikings and is determined to come out on top. The game is set for Saturday, November 17th at 2:00 PM at the University of Idaho.

Winning a List of Points

Winning is a list of points that includes a list of all the points scored by the Vandals in their games this season. The points include all the points scored by the Vandals in their games against the Cougars, the Stanford Bears, and the University of Oregon.

The team is looking to build on their success this season and is determined to make a strong statement against the Vikings.

Matmen Schedule Tentative Bout

Since no Northern division challenge matches were made early this season, the Matmen matmen are looking for a chance to wrestle each J. "Gabe" Johnson. The Matmen have been looking for a chance to wrestle against each other for some time now.

A match has been tentatively scheduled, however, for December 1st. It will take place at the University of Washington.

The match is set up for a great match and is expected to be a great test for the Matmen.
