Pianist Features One Hand Exercise "But Not By Choice"

"But many people planning to be there," said one of the students, "are just curious about what it will be like to perform in public with only one hand, but I don't think many will be able to feel what it's like."

The music program will be presented in the new auditorium building, which is still under construction. The event is open to the public and admission is free.

Students Hunt In Accident

Although it wasn't Warington's idea, he had no other choice after the accident, except to keep on with the band's practice schedule. The accident happened during their last concert of the season, which was their last chance to perform before the holiday break.

"He was playing the saxophone when he was hit by the car," said a classmate. "He's lucky to be alive, but he's in a lot of pain."

Progress Is Made Toward Annual Vocal Show

Work is progressing satisfactorily for the Little Women, a musical show which will be held in the auditorium on Saturday evening. The show is being staged by the music department and is directed by Dr. R. W. Martin, chairman of the department.

"The show is being worked on by the students," said Dr. Martin. "They are doing a great job."

baseman; Jim Wicks, left center; Bob Brown, second baseman; Tom Wicks, short stop; Jim Wicks, third baseman; John Brown, right center; John Wicks, right fielder; John Wicks, pitcher; Jim Wicks, pitcher; John Brown, pitcher.

The team will leave today for Arizona, where they will play in a series of six games against Arizona, the University of Iowa, and Northwestern. The games will be played in the Phoenix area, which is just 20 miles from the University of Arizona campus.

Whitman Defeat
In TahIRA

Whitman defeated Idaho in a close match on Saturday. The final score was 2-1 in favor of Whitman. The Idaho pitcher was outstanding, but the Whitman batters were more effective.

Vandals Start Second Week
Spring Training; Good Spirit Coach Dick Howell ran the University of Idaho’s baseball team through its second week of spring training. The team has shown good spirit and has had a few close matches. However, Howell has pointed out that the team needs more practice to reach its full potential.
