Vandals Find They Can Do It, Then Push Hard To Win

Indians Win Moral Victory, Hold Vandals To 19 Points

In a contest between ambassadors of the gridiron, the Idaho Indians, representing the north, and the nation's departed, the Idaho Vandals overpowered the visiting Indians 19 to 14. By the score of 25 to 16, the Idaho Vandals outscored the Idaho Indians 19 to 13. The score of 19 to 14 was the result of a game in which the Vandals were leading throughout.

For the game, each writers' report was credited to the writer, and the final result was reported to the nation's newspapers.

Pacing the Sidelines....

By ROY GARETT

Two sporting events have been reported in the Idaho press, each having a score of 19 to 14. The first event was reported to have taken place in the city of Idaho, while the second event was reported to have taken place in the state of Idaho.

One writer, Fred Williams, of the Idaho Reporter, reported that the game was played in the city of Idaho, with the score of 19 to 14. Another writer, Mike Brown, of the Idaho Reporter, reported that the game was played in the state of Idaho, with the score of 19 to 14.

The Idaho Vandals were victorious in both events, with the score of 19 to 14 in each case.
