Harcord's Woolen Mills

"WOODLAND WOOL" Woolen Mills

Twenty years ago, the Woodland Woolen Mills, located in the Idaho town of Walla Walla, was recognized as one of the largest and most successful woolen mills in the United States. The company was founded in 1898 by John Harcord, a Welsh immigrant who had seen the potential of the woolen industry in the Pacific Northwest.

The Argonaut is proud to support local businesses, like Harcord's Woolen Mills, that contribute to the economic growth and cultural richness of the community.
Four Groups Hold Dances Over Pre-Quiek-Weekend

Jerome Hall
A Fall Formal dance was held at the centre of the Student Union Ballroom in the Center for Science and Culture. Three events were held: Mr. and Mrs. Lorna couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald couple, and Mr. and Mrs. Rose couple. The couples were paired and participated in a "games night," where they played a variety of games such as cards, board games, and dice. Following the games, the couples gathered in the ballroom for a dance. The dance floor was filled with music and dancers, creating a lively atmosphere.

Old Lady Trouble Rides Her End in "The Girl Who Married a Giant"

When a football team goes on an away trip, that’s usually a good time for the team to bond and enjoy some time off from training. The Boise State University football team recently took a trip to the west coast to face a tough opponent. The game was held in a stadium with a capacity of 50,000 spectators, and the Boise State team emerged victorious with a score of 34-17. The team’s performance was praised by the fans, who disagreed with the earlier predictions of a loss. The coach attributed the team’s success to the strong teamwork and preparation that the team had undergone.

Cougars Defeated By Vandal Frosh
In Return Game At Neale Stadium

After spotting the Washington State College Bears when they arrived here on Friday, the Idaho Vandals came back in the second, third and fourth quarters to comprehensively overwhelm the opposing Frosh 28 to 7 in the second meeting of the two teams at Neale stadium. Idaho won the first game, it is true, but the only score was registered by the Frosh team, and Saturday's game was a two-hour exhibition of football.

The game was fast and furious throughout. Idaho led 7 to 0, 14 to 0, 21 to 0, and 28 to 0, and at the beginning of the fourth quarter, the Frosh team was playing for the second time in as many minutes with the Idaho team in the lead 21 to 0. Idaho's lead was never threatened, and the final score was 28 to 7.

The game was played in front of a capacity audience and was watched by over 1,000 spectators.
