The Villain Gets His Vets Move Toward Establishment Of Co-op Group

Citing critical eyes at the Argonaut office pressuring studentar answer was the Inquiring Reporter, who decided to single out campus pursuit on this hearing question:

Why do you think the students...

VetsMove Toward Establishment Of Co-op Group

The veterans cooperative association or the University is one of a number of national organizations that have been formed in recent years to aid veterans. The association is the veteran's group of the University and is affiliated with the University Community College. The association, which was organized in early 1942, has been active in a number of activities, including the establishment of a co-op group, which is the subject of this story.

The association is interested in the establishment of a co-op group, which would provide a place for veterans to work and live together. The association is working with the University to establish such a group, and it is hoped that the group will be in operation by the spring of 1943.

The association is also interested in the establishment of a community center, which would provide a place for veterans to meet and socialize. The association is working with the University to establish such a center, and it is hoped that the center will be in operation by the fall of 1943.

The association is also interested in the establishment of a veterans' chapter of the University. The association is working with the University to establish such a chapter, and it is hoped that the chapter will be in operation by the spring of 1944.

The association is also interested in the establishment of a veterans' library, which would provide a place for veterans to read and study. The association is working with the University to establish such a library, and it is hoped that the library will be in operation by the fall of 1944.

The association is also interested in the establishment of a veterans' hospital, which would provide medical care for veterans. The association is working with the University to establish such a hospital, and it is hoped that the hospital will be in operation by the spring of 1945.
Flying Disc Chase Still On

"Flying discs are into Washington," "Flying discs are into the hands of the people," "Flying discs are into the hands of the people." These reports were disseminated during the 1930s, and the excitement for flying discs persisted throughout the decade. In this context, the reference to "Flying discs" suggests a popular pastime or sport during that time.

Campus Trees Not Suffering, They Were Born That Way

But not all of the campus is suffering. A group of students has been working hard to maintain the beauty of the campus, and the results are evident. The trees are lush and green, and the campus is a joy to behold.

S. Africa Student Waits Days For Phone To Ring

With little contact with the outside world, she spends her days in solitude, waiting for the phone to ring. Her letters to the editor are a testament to her feelings of isolation and the desire for connection. The reference to "South Africa" suggests a context of political or social significance during the time of apartheid.

Uncle Sam Offers Map-Making Jobs To Graduates

The government is offering map-making jobs to recent graduates, an opportunity for young people to find employment in a field that combines geography and technology. The reference to "Uncle Sam" is a nod to the United States government.

E.L. Majors Heat Supervisor Speaks

A lecture given by a professor at a university, discussing the heat and energy systems of the building and the potential for improvement. The reference to "E.L. Majors" and "Heat Supervisor" suggests a focus on energy management.

To Infringement

The Internal Revenue Service is again investigating the financial records of a local business, looking for potential tax evasion. The reference to "Internal Revenue Service" and "Infringement" suggests a legal or financial context.

STUDENT

The student body is growing, with new students enrolling at the university. The reference to "STUDENT" suggests a focus on student life and activities.

The Gang's All Here!

The caption suggests a gathering of friends or family, possibly a reunion. The reference to "The Gang's All Here!" is a playful way to describe a reunion or gathering.

Neely's Taxi

A local taxi service, Neely's Taxi, is described as having been in operation for many years, offering reliable transportation to the local community. The reference to "Neely's Taxi" suggests a local business that has been serving the community for a long time.

The Idaho Argonaut, University of Idaho

A newspaper or magazine, The Idaho Argonaut, published by the University of Idaho. The reference to "The Idaho Argonaut" suggests a local or university publication.

Deliveries To All Parts of Town

A local delivery service, Neely's Taxi, is offering deliveries to all parts of town, making it convenient for residents to get what they need. The reference to "Deliveries To All Parts of Town" suggests a service that is convenient and accessible.

No kidding! It really pays to advertise in the Idaho Argonaut

A local newspaper, the Idaho Argonaut, is offering advertising opportunities, suggesting a local business that is promoting its services.

Call 2436 Wednesday and Friday Afternoon and Ask For An Argonaut Representative

A contact number is provided, allowing readers to call and ask for an Argonaut Representative for advertising opportunities. The reference to "Call 2436 Wednesday and Friday Afternoon" suggests a commitment to customer service and advertising opportunities.
Idaho's Co-Champion Ringmen Cop Opener From Louisiana Sluggers

Carlson Salavges Narrow Decision

The Idaho ring squad made overtime nights initial 4-1 lead in the first period stand up and won by a 9-7 decision over Louisiana State, in front of a sellout crowd of 1,350 in the University Fieldhouse Tuesday night.

The win, the 33rd, takes the Beavers to 1-0 in the Pacific Coast Conference and 5-2 for the season. The Gators are 0-1 in the Pac-10 and 2-6 overall.

In the opening round, Idaho's Ringmen Cop, led by junior Mike Evans and senior Rick Jones, made quick work of their opponents.

The Beavers opened the scoring early, with Evans scoring a pair of goals in the first minute. The Gators responded with two goals, but the Beavers added three more goals in the second period to take a 6-4 lead into the third period.

In the third period, the Gators fought back with two goals, but the Beavers added two more to secure the win.

Despite the loss, the Gators showed a strong performance, particularly in the second period, when they scored two goals to cut the lead to 8-6.

The Idaho Ringmen Cop, coached by Bob Jones, is known for its high-scoring offense and strong defense. The team's next game is scheduled for Friday against the University of Utah.

Tuesdays First meeting of the 2018-19 season with the University of Oregon, the Beavers finished the night's competition with a 6-0 victory.

The win improves the Beavers' record to 7-2, while the Gators fell to 5-4 in the conference and 12-6 overall.

The Idaho Ringmen Cop, led by Evans and Jones, continues to be one of the top teams in the country, and is a contender for a second straight national championship.

The team's next game is scheduled for Saturday against the University of Washington.