"Wearin' Of The Green"
Theme Of Club Dance

St. Patrick's Day festivities are being planned by the Student Council officers in Sigma Chi fraternity for Friday night March 18, at 8:00 p.m. at the Home Club.

Dance will begin promptly at 8:00 p.m. and will conclude at 11:00 p.m. All students are cordially invited to attend what is expected to be a fun-filled night of dancing to the latest music provided by DJ Bob Nelson. Refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

Tickets can be purchased at the door for $1.00. Attendees are encouraged to wear green attire to show their spirit and support St. Patrick's Day traditions.

Don't miss out on this opportunity to celebrate Green Week with your friends and enjoy a night of fun and excitement at the Home Club!"
LETTERS TO JASON

Dear Jason:

Congratulations to 60 Street residents on their recent victory. The community spirit was truly inspiring.

Sincerely,

It's Worse Than Virus X

Of all the diseases which afflict the campus students, the diaphanous "bacterium-symptom" is far worse than most. It has been widespread in the Approaches—although some symptoms are common to all. The challenges presented are many.

Open "B" League

Supercapacity, in fact, is the new normal. We have seen this before, but it seems that, despite our best efforts, the virus is spreading like wildfire.

In the absence of a clear solution, we urge the community to remain vigilant and support one another.

Just In Time For Easter

Through the years Davids' has grown with Moscow. In appreciation of this growth Davids' has always tried to furnish Moscow a store that would be a credit to the whole Palouse Empire.

We are now ready for your inspection of our newest efforts on the second floor. Into the remodeling has gone the most modern ideas of store architects, fixture designers, lighting engineers and decorators. Davids' hope that the results will meet with your hearty approval.

Vandal Guards Selected On Coaches' All-Northern Division Hoop Squad

Huskies Nichols Unanimous Choice

Tommie, the 6-10 center, was solicited on the all-star basketball team after appearing on the all-star team with Cliff Chandl, Oregon State, and San Williams of Oregon. The other regular Vandal, Joe Henson, the 6-8 center, was named on the all-team. The team is made up of Al Smith, 6-8 forward, Bub Nichols, 6-3 guard, Jack Haggard and Andy Walker. After appearing on the All-Consumers' side, Nichols rebounded the ball and was selected for the all-team.

The team was selected by the Division coaches, the coaches and the coaches who are interested in the All-Northern Division Hoop Squad.
