Radio In The Arborietum

It saddened our hearts to learn that KUOM is planning to move to a new location. An appropriately perfect, permanent studio seems to be the fad of our times.

In the second place, they've got nothing but a second-hand studio going on. We want that studio to be as fine as your heart desires it to be. We don't want it to be a place to live in. We want it to be a place to live to. We want it to be a place where we can all work together and make music. We want it to be a place where we can all have fun and make friends. We want it to be a place where we can all learn from each other and grow as individuals. We want it to be a place where we can all contribute to the community and make it a better place to live in. We want it to be the heart of our town. We want it to be the heart of our lives.

Popular Songs Are Theme of Several Campus Dances

"It's Magic" was chosen as the theme of two semi-formal dances held last weekend. Friday night's was held in the Blue Basin ballroom in the Student Memorial Auditorium, and Thursday night's was held on the campus of the Alpha Phi sorority house.

Friday's dance was attended by about 150 guests, and Thursday's by about 100 guests. Both dances were open to the public.

Party to Include Hook-Up Contest

The usual social entertainment for a dance such as these will be held on Saturday night at 7 p.m. at the Creekside Inn. The band will be directed by Dr. R. C. Veasey, director of the U.S.C. Band.

Rampaging Idaho Vandals Unleash Terrific Power Attack As They Run Wild Over The Portland Pilots

Idaho Ends Home Season; Drop Portland Team 28-0

Nearly 4000 spectators filled the chilly weather and challenging skies at Vandal stadium, Saturday, November 14th, to watch an unfolding group of Idaho Vandals overpowered the highly commended University of Portland Pilots 28 to 0.

Johnny Christianson, fermenting the Vandals into their third three-point lead over the Pilots, opened the scoring on the 71-yard field goal by senior kicker Allen Mays.

The second half, to an opening kickoff, Freeman took to his own 42 and carried the ball to the 33 yard line. The Pilot's Don Christianson, flying a perfect pass for 30 yards down the left sideline, was caught by senior wide receiver Paul Overgaard. In the course of that pass, Overgaard kicked the first of four perfect kicks in the contest.

On the next play, Christianson handed off to junior tailback Mays who ran the ball 33 yards for the second touchdown of the game.

As the second half came to an end, the Vandal team took a 7-0 lead over the Portland team, led by their quarterback Doak Colo.

In the third quarter, Allen Mays opened the scoring again, a series of 12 plays from the 8 yard line, and put all of the 33 yard pass away from the 12 yard line.

The Portland team, which was led by senior quarterback Bill Howling, scored on a 33 yard pass from the 14 yard line, and put all of the 33 yard pass away from the 12 yard line.

In the fourth quarter, the Vandal team took a 7-0 lead over the Portland team, led by their quarterback Doak Colo.

As the game continued, the Vandal team took a 7-0 lead over the Portland team, led by their quarterback Doak Colo.

Idaho's quarterback, Allen Mays, threw 17 completions in 28 attempts, averaging 3.9 yard average per completion, and he established an average of 5.3 yards per completion. His quarterback rating was 73.8.

On the defensive, freshman defensive back Mays had a hand in each of the four touchdowns, and he set the tone for the entire game. He made a tackle for loss on the first play of the game, and he had another tackle in the last quarter for a loss of 12 yards. Mays' third tackle of the game came on the final play of the game, when he stopped the Portland quarterback at the 20 yard line.
