University To Celebrate 60th Birthday Jan. 30th

Studious KUOI radio "fades of the Vandalas" under the newly-minted regulation for the AHEC constitution, may soon be the choice of better air and better stations with more facilities for broadening. Work is underway at present to get new transmission and other equipment through Nebraska. By the fall of 1941, a 500-watt transmitter is being placed in operation at the station. This is the same station that was operated in 1940.

The station is operated by the University of Idaho, and is one of the few educational radio stations that are affiliated with the AHEC. The station is located in the basement of the Hodge Hall building and is equipped with a 500-watt transmitter. The station is operated by a group of students and faculty members who are passionate about radio and its potential to connect with people.

KUOI "fades" into the airwaves every weekday afternoon, from 3:00 to 4:00 PM. The station's programming includes a variety of music, news, and talk shows.

Hell Week?  First week of the course almost unendurable—more studying, more coffee-drinking, greater movie attendance, more love affairs with the opposite sex.  This is apparently the only thing that can happen to any of us other than any other time of year.

Final exams are totally and completely monitored.  One Idaho professor once said that the only place he was known to be at the same time was the Bath and the theater, where he could be monitored.  This probably means that he will have his exams monitored there, too.

"Exams week is a bane to the old man," John R. L. of the Idaho Press.  "We never get an A grade on exams, and we don't want to get one.  We're just trying to pass."

"Exams week is also to be a great bit of studying, but to be honest, it's just a bit of a waste of time."

Skiing Classes To Continue; Students Can Enroll In Gym

With regular ski classes continuing on the course during most of the winter, there is an ongoing enrollment of students for both beginning and advanced classes.  The sign-up sheet for the gym is now open and there are still some spots available.

"For a price of $25, you can go to the gym and use the facilities.  This is a great deal," said Mike Brown, the gym coordinator.

Water sports, however, are not included in the price.

"You can sign up for water sports separately," said Brown.

Hickman To Head Breeder's Course Starting Monday

C. A. Hickman, chairman of the second annual Breeder's Breeding course to be held Monday through Thursday in the gym, was interviewed this morning.

"I'm really excited about this course," said Hickman.

"I think it will be a great success.  We have a lot of students enrolled and I'm sure they will be interested in learning about the different aspects of breeding.

"We're going to have a lot of guest speakers and I think they will be very informative.  I'm looking forward to it."
