Member Of Family Famed For Food Scholarships Returns

One of the nation's top food merchants came back to the Idaho State University faculty, brought some unusual business of 17 years ago—initiation into Sigma Chi fraternity. In special ceremonies, the fraternity's white-croset/span>ed breast pins were pinned on the members.

Mr. N. D. Brown of Burley, Idaho, and member of Sigma Chi fraternity at ISU, came back to his alma mater recently to participate in the initiation ceremonies, where he was initiated with his fellow students.

Brothers Members

That fall one of the most custom-made breast pins in Sigma Chi fraternity, a member, J. E. H. R. and in Denver have long been a part of the initiation ceremonies in the chapter. And now the name of the name has been added to the rooster.

Mr. Brown was one of the members being initiated at the chapter, and he was the only one initiated.

When Harris first enrolled at ISU, he was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity, where he was initiated with his fellow students.

Life was a busy time for Mr. Brown, who was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity, where he was initiated with his fellow students.

Delta Tau Celebrates 19th Anniversary

Delta Tau's history and tradition are celebrated in this page from The Idaho Argonaut, the university newspaper of the University of Idaho. The page highlights the 19th anniversary of Delta Tau, a fraternity at the university, and includes an announcement for a fundraiser. The event is to be held on Thursday, as stated, and features a celebration to honor the fraternity's achievements and contributions to the university community. The page also contains an advertisement for the Idaho Graduate, a magazine celebrating the achievements of Idaho graduates, and a notice for a fundraiser to support Idaho students. The page is a snapshot of the university's rich history and the ongoing efforts to support and celebrate its traditions and achievements.
Courtmen Clash With Gill's Cellar-Dwelling Beavers

The Idaho mapleshort crew will be attempting to strengthen their hold in the Northwest Conference today by trying to take away from them tonight and tomorrow afternoon at the home of Paul Gill who resides at 1723 University Avenue, Corvallis. The Beavers currently have a winning record while the Vandals are floundering to make good on their promise to compete this year. The Saturday game between the two institutions will also be the first intercollegiate event since the two institutions joined the conference.

Frosh Five Face Hi Tonight

Mike Kinney, Idaho's smooth-faced frosh, will be facing his first stop in Corvallis tonight, as the Vandals play their first game against the LSU Tigers. Kinney, who stands six feet two inches tall and weighs 185 pounds, has shown promise in his first games and is expected to make his mark in Corvallis.

New Hoop Ruling May Revolutionize Refereeing System

If the new ruling on the free throw is upheld, it could revolutionize the refereeing system in basketball. The ruling states that if a player is fouled and the ball is in the basket, the free throw must be taken from the free throw line. This could change the way games are played and refereed.

Ring Warriors Pitch Pillows With Golden Gloves

In Eighty-Minute Matches

The University of Minnesota Golden Gloves will square off against the University of Idaho Vandal team tonight in the first intercollegiate event since the two institutions joined the conference.
