25 Acts Ready To Go In Annual Talent Show

Talent Show Starts At 7 p.m.

More than 250 high school students will compete for the eighth annual Delta Sigma Phi Talent Show, to be held on April 15, 2004, at 8:00 p.m. in the AUS Ballroom. The show is sponsored by Delta Sigma Phi, a social fraternity.

The competition will feature a variety of acts, including instrumentalists, soloists, duets, ensembles, and dance groups. All acts will be judged on their skills and presentation.

The show is open to all high school students in the area, and all acts will be judged on their skills and presentation.

Delta Sigma Phi is a national fraternity whose purpose is to promote the development of students in the field of communications.

Welcome Committees Are Named

Students were present to be greeted by the faculty of the AUS psychology department at the annual Welcome Committee meeting on April 1, 2004. The faculty was present to discuss the department's activities and the role of the Welcome Committee in fostering a sense of community among the students.

Welcome committees are established by the faculty of each department to facilitate the transition of new students into the AUS community. They are responsible for organizing events and activities that welcome new students and introduce them to the AUS community.

AUS Constitution Changes Are Proposed

The AUS Constitution is undergoing revisions to address some of the concerns expressed by the students and faculty. The changes are being proposed to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the AUS Constitution.

The proposed changes include the addition of a new section on the structure of the AUS Constitution, which will provide a clearer understanding of the roles and responsibilities of the AUS Constitution.

The proposed changes will be presented to the AUS Constitution Committee by April 10, 2004. The Committee will then determine whether to approve the changes and submit them to the AUS Constitution for approval.

The AUS Constitution is reviewed and revised periodically to ensure that it remains relevant, effective, and responsive to the needs of the AUS community.

The proposed changes will be implemented as soon as possible after the AUS Constitution has approved them.
Commuters Place Few In Key Spots

By Gary Fleisch

"Just the right spots, in the right places," is the way the Commuters' Union, an advocacy group seeking to improve the commute of Idaho State University students, explains its mission.

According to the group, in order to make the commute experience better, commuters need to be placed strategically throughout the campus, in areas where they can easily access transportation.

The group is seeking to place commuters in key spots around the campus, including near bus stops, bike racks, and other modes of transportation.

Dear Romans,

The Boise Roman Catholic Archdiocese is reviewing the conduct of its priests and deacons. The archdiocese is committed to ensuring that all priests and deacons are held to the highest standards of conduct and accountability.

The archdiocese has established a process for handling complaints and ensuring that all individuals who have concerns about the conduct of a priest or deacon are able to report them. This process includes a confidential reporting hotline, as well as a website with information on how to file a complaint.

The archdiocese is committed to creating a safe and welcoming environment for all of its members, and we take all allegations of misconduct seriously. We encourage anyone with concerns to come forward and report them to the appropriate authorities.

In a letter to the community, the archdiocese stated: "We are committed to ensuring that all members of our community feel safe and supported. If you have any concerns or questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to us."

We are grateful for the trust and confidence placed in us by our community, and we will continue to work tirelessly to foster a culture of safety and respect.

Enrolled Students May Vote

Any regularly enrolled student, graduate or undergraduates, residing in the campus area, is eligible to vote in the election. The 2023-2024 Student Government election will be held on April 4, 2023.

Voting will take place in two phases: on campus at the polling stations, and online through the ISU Student Affairs website.

The election will feature a variety of positions, including President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. Students are encouraged to research the candidates and make informed decisions.

Frosh Coeds Hold Pledging

Alpha Lambda Delta, national womens academic attainment sorority, held formal pledging on March 9th at the ISU Student Center.

The requirement for membership is to be a member of the campus chapter, to have a 3.0 GPA, and to complete a 10-week pledging period.

The ceremony included a variety of activities, such as speeches, performances, and a final pledging ceremony. The new pledges were inducted into the fraternity during this event.

Ford Art Collection On Display

An exhibit of the works of Ford Art Collection is currently on display at the ISU Student Union.

The collection features a variety of works by Ford, including paintings, sculptures, and prints, that were donated to the university by the artist.

The exhibit is free and open to the public, and will be on display until April 30th. Visitors are encouraged to stop by and explore the collection.

Northwest Collection Adds Grace Jordans New Book

Grace Jordans new book, "The Light's End," is now available in the library collection at the ISU Student Union.

The book is a historical fiction novel that explores the lives of women during the Spanish American War.

The novel has received positive reviews and has been praised for its engaging storyline and well-developed characters.

Wish to make a donation to the library? You can donate books or make a financial contribution to support the collection.

Ted Davis, a junior in journalism, said that one of the most exciting aspects of being a part of the Northwest Collection is the opportunity to explore a wide range of literary genres and styles.

"It’s a great way to discover new authors and appreciate the diversity of the human experience," Davis said. "The Northwest Collection is a treasure trove of literary gems that are sure to inspire and engage any reader who visits the library."
The guests have been busy spreading the pastries and coffee so it’s off any way, or is it? The coffee is coming along with Mrs. Davis, who has her hands full with things. Meanwhile, on the stage, the band is getting ready to start their program.

Diamond Men Get Initial Test Today In Whitworth Battle
Young Diamond Men Play Inaugural Game Friday

The Idaho Vandal football team, which was knocked off at one of its three game road trips to meet the Whitworth Pirates, will make its home debut Friday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at the Northern Division Athletic Stadium.

Starting quarterback and end Alvin Personage, who returned from the University of Idaho to take care of his family in the fall, will play for the new back from the Northern Division Athletic Stadium.

Hyde-Whitworth game will be played on a natural turf surface and will be a battle of the two best teams in the Northern Division. The Hydes, who have been in the Northern Division for two years, have won all five games played so far this season.

The Hydes have lost only one game in the last two years and have been able to hold their own in the Northern Division. They have also been able to hold their own in the Western Athletic Conference.

The Hydes are led by quarterback Alvin Personage, who has thrown for 728 yards and five touchdowns in five games. Personage also has 101 rushing yards and one touchdown.

The Hydes have also been able to hold their own in the Western Athletic Conference. They have won three games in the Western Athletic Conference and have lost only one game.
