The Idaho Argonaut
It's A Small World At Idaho

The University of Idaho has been called the 19th best value in the nation. Additional information can be found on their website.

Although books provide a wealth of valuable information, they do not provide the full scope of what has been learned. They are useful tools, but they cannot replace the experience of talking to different people. This is especially true when you're trying to understand complex issues.

The University of Idaho is a great place to start your academic journey. With a variety of programs and resources available, you can find the right fit for your educational goals.

The university's motto is "The Power of Knowledge," and it reflects the institution's commitment to providing a high-quality education. The campus is located in Moscow, Idaho, and it offers a range of undergraduate and graduate programs in fields such as agriculture, business, engineering, and the natural sciences.

For more information, visit the University of Idaho website or contact the admissions office.

The Telephone Polling

K.L.K.

The survey found that 85% of respondents believe that the quality of education is improving. This is a positive trend that is happening nationwide.

Despite this, there are still concerns about the affordability of higher education. Many students are struggling to pay for their tuition and related expenses. This is a issue that needs to be addressed.

Some solutions include increasing financial aid, offering more scholarships, and implementing tuition-free policies. These are just a few of the options that could help make higher education more accessible to all students.

The University of Idaho is committed to providing a high-quality education at an affordable price. They offer a range of financial aid options, including grants, scholarships, and loans. Additionally, the university has implemented a tuition-free policy for some students.

For more information on financial aid and tuition-free policies, visit the University of Idaho website or contact the admissions office.

"Babe Curfman's Vandal's Recapture Stein, 12 to 9"

Babe Curfman Scores Twice As Idaho Tames Grizzly

That famous wooden stool is back where it belongs on the Idaho campus because of a thrilling Vandal triumph, led by Chrisie Curfman, Vandal halfback, who ran for 143 yards on 13 carries, on a run around left end, and a full third of Idaho's touchdown plays. For the first touchdowns, the key figure on the Idaho side was the second string end, who scored on a 10-yard plunge on the two-yard line. The Vandals backfield left halfback, Chrisie Curfman, scored on several more occasions, giving the Vandals a 12-0 lead at the half. Meanwhile, the Grizzlies were held to one touchdown, a pass to Bill Harman in the third quarter. This was a tense game, with both teams playing well. Idaho's defense held the Grizzlies to 122 yards in total offense, while the Vandals offense gained 353 yards. Idaho quarterback Chrisie Curfman had a huge day, completing 13 of 20 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns. Idaho running back Chrisie Curfman had 143 yards on 13 carries, with a long of 72 yards.
