Twinbill Slated Today; Baseball Opener Called

Early morning news-flashes and wet grounds caused the cancellation yesterday of Idaho-Northern Division baseball games. The Idaho players tried to get their opener started today at 1:30 before the 1-0-0 clubs.

Coach Corn accountants who were on hand found that the storm which blacked Monday's opener was merely and that only the ball was wet. The weather was not so sure if the first game will be played on this date.

"With a good wind, and if the rain holds off, there is chance to close the opener today or yesterday," one bookmaker said.

Farmers along the Idaho-Arizona line, who were kept up all night by the storm, were wondering if they will play the first game of the doubleheader.

The finish of Tuesday's game was called on account of "bad weather conditions." The Idaho players are the first to play a game this season without a "no decision."

The Idaho players again scored in the 2nd and second run the game against the Wildcats on account of a triple

by R. J. Backus.
