Chis Have 'Sew-On' Contest

Alpha Xi Delta House has a big shift ahead, for the club's annual 'Sew-On' contest. The event, which is a fundraiser for the sorority, is scheduled for this Friday, Nov. 26, at 6 p.m.

This year, the Alpha Xi Delta House sought donations of sewing materials from various sources, including local businesses and individuals. The materials were then used to create 'Sew-On' items, which are sold during the event to raise money for the sorority.

The Alpha Xi Delta House is a member of theAlpha Xi Delta sorority, which is part of the Alpha Xi Delta International sorority organization. The Alpha Xi Delta sorority is known for its commitment to community service and philanthropy.

The 'Sew-On' contest is just one of the many events held by the Alpha Xi Delta House throughout the year. The sorority also hosts a variety of other fundraising events, including bake sales, car washes, and silent auctions.

The Alpha Xi Delta House is located at 1234 Alpha Xi Delta Court, Alpha Xi Delta University. It is open to all members of the university community and is located on the university's campus.

The Alpha Xi Delta House is currently seeking donations of sewing materials and volunteers to help with the 'Sew-On' contest. To donate or volunteer, please contact the Alpha Xi Delta House at 555-1234.

Play BYU At Provo Friday

Although they did their first meeting in four games the victorious Idaho Vandals dropped a 23 to 14 decision to Oregon State University at Provo, Utah.

The Vandals held the edge in most statistical departments and trailed only once, 7 to 6, early in the second period. Oregon State however, managed to score two touchdowns in the final period to win.

In the game’s opening stages, the Vandals scored an early touchdown, 6 to 0, but were unable to hold it. Oregon State was able to score one touchdown before half time, with only two minutes remaining in the period.

In the second period, Oregon State scored two touchdowns, 14 to 6, and held the lead for the remainder of the game.

The Vandals were unable to hold their lead and were unable to score in the final period.

Account For Idaho Scoring

Husky Pups Smash Babes

Overwhelming long runs and passes were major contributors to the Vandals’ 20 to 14 defeat suffered at the hands of the Washington Husky Pups Saturday afternoon.

The Pups were up in time to let the Vandals know just what was in store for them, with quarterback Jim Graham, Santa Rosa, Calif., leading his team in his third game as quarterback. The Vandals, who were defeated by 15 points, 20 to 5, were scored on a 15-yard pass from Graham to Milt Finley in the first period.

Washington touchdowns: Millen (53 yard pass from Graham), Heron (90 yard run); Snyder (33 yard run); Heron (29 yard pass from Graham); Finley (3 yard run); Finley (3 yard pass from Graham)

Champions

WRA Hockey

The Idaho WRA Field Hockey team won a closely fought 1 to 0 victory over USC WRA in a game played at Pullman Friday afternoon.

The team will leave Thursday night to participate in the North Idaho Women’s’ Hockey Tournament, scheduled to begin on Friday and be concluded Saturday.
