Campaign Into Hectic Week

Famed Vandeeleers Will Give 13 Tour Concerts

The University of Idaho Vandeeleers, under the direction of Richard M. Brown, will tour the United States and Canada from April 1 to 13, upon a concert tour of fourteen northern Idaho communities.

The Vandeeleers will play a total of 13 concerts in the following locations:

- April 1: Public School, Sandpoint
- April 2: High School, Coeur d'Alene
- April 3: High School, Post Falls
- April 4: High School, Kellogg
- April 5: High School, Orofino
- April 6: High School, Moscow
- April 7: High School, Idaho Falls
- April 8: College of Idaho, Caldwell
- April 9: High School, Lewiston
- April 10: High School, Moscow
- April 11: Idaho Pacific College, Boise
- April 12: High School, Post Falls
- April 13: High School, Kootenai

The Vandeeleers will be accompanied by the Vandeeleer Quartet, a vocal ensemble from the College of Idaho.

Indefinites, SG Plan Weekend Dances, Smokers

The four-party ASUI political machinery rolled into the SIB last night to hold the first of the weekend dances, another ASUI dance, and another smoke out.

One of the three finalists for the title of Little Miss International Queen will be crowned at the SIB tonight and another three finalists will be crowned at the SIB next week.

The candidates, along with the other three finalists, will be participating in the pageant at the SIB.

Top Ten Srs. To Be Named At May Fete

Twenty-five senior students, who are in student affairs with junior class, will be introduced to the faculty at May Fete. The candidates, who are in student affairs with junior class, will be introduced to the faculty at May Fete. The candidates, who are in student affairs with junior class, will be introduced to the faculty at May Fete.

King-SJavea Javy For Two-Bits

Collectively known as either "King-Javy" or "Javy-King," a new student organization is being formed at the University of Idaho. The group consists of four students, all of whom are upperclassmen, and they are working on the establishment of a student organization.

Forestry Week Begins April 23; Is Statewide

Associated Foresters will be emphasizing the importance of Forestry Week, starting April 23 by wearing their green ties and by having a forest theme at all college functions. The group plans to sponsor a number of activities to raise awareness of the field of forestry.

Exec. Board Considers NSA, Awards, Ski Area

The Exec. Board will consider the award of the NSA to the Ski Area. The Ski Area has been nominated for consideration, and the board will vote on its recommendation.

GiGi Features Open Curtain Scene Change

In the past, GiGi has featured a variety of scenes, including a murder mystery, a love story, and a political satire. The current show features a scene change that is both humorous and dramatic. The scene change is designed to keep the audience engaged and interested.

Familiar Ball Stated 12th

The Public Affairs office of the Boise State University stating that the 12th Annual Ball will be held on February 12th at the College of Idaho. The event is open to all students and will feature a dance performance by the Vandeeleers.

Aggie Queen Finalists

One of the three finalists for the title of Little Miss International Queen will be crowned at the SIB tonight and another three finalists will be crowned at the SIB next week.

The candidates, along with the other three finalists, will be participating in the pageant at the SIB.

Orchard Boys, ALU Fire, and the Search for the Missing Boy

The Orchid Boys, a group of student musicians, have been searching for a missing boy who went missing during a camping trip. The group has been working hard to find the boy and bring him home.
April In Moscow is the musical adaptation of the Russian novel "War and Peace" by Leo Tolstoy. It is a historic musical that has been performed worldwide and is renowned for its grand scale and epic story. The musical is known for its rich orchestration and powerful vocals, making it a highlight of the opera and musical theatre scene. If you enjoy historical dramas or Intermezzo music, you should definitely consider attending this performance.
THEOPHILUS TO THROW OUT FIRST PCC BALL
Many Sophomores Key To Vandal Chances

Sophomores will play a key role in the Idaho Vandals' upcoming conference season. Last year's team carried an offensive load far greater than what's expected of them this season. The Vandals will begin the Pac-10 schedule playing with their first-year players.

In compiling this year's team, coach Don Strothman has included a variety of game situations where they have excelled. The team's success rests on the sophomores' ability to perform well.

Golfers Open At Walla Walla This Afternoon

Walla Walla Country Club will be the scene of the Vandal golfers' first scheduled match of the season. The Idaho squad will meet Whitman there at 3:15 p.m., when the two teams will be playing in a triangular match.

President D. W. Theophiphon, who owns some pleasant golf club in the area, has arranged for some additional practice matches to keep the team sharp.

Softball Starts Monday; Phi Gams To Defend Title

Phi Gamma Deltas and other members of the Vandal athletic staff will host a spring meet to conclude the weekend.

President D. W. Theophiphon will be in charge of the meet, which will feature Phi Gamma Deltas and some of the other athletic teams.

Alpha Phi Lead Pac-10

Alpha Phi has taken the lead in the West Coast Conference with a career-high total of 120 points.

In second place are Kinony Alpha Rho, who have a total of 112 points, and Alpha Nu, who have scored 101 points.

As soon as possible, the meet will be held next week, at 6 p.m., on the smallest field.

Rodeo Club Ficks Queen, Princesses

The Idaho State University rodeo club will elect a queen and princess of their own in a special ceremony.

The queen will be chosen from the athletes and members of the club, while the princess will be drawn from the student body.

The crown will be presented to the
new queen on the first day of the season.

By Tom Harvey

The Idaho State University rodeo club will elect a queen and princess
of their own in a special ceremony.

The queen will be chosen from the
athletes and members of the club, while the princess will be drawn from the student body.

The crown will be presented to the
new queen on the first day of the season.

By Tom Harvey

The Idaho State University rodeo club will elect a queen and princess
of their own in a special ceremony.

The queen will be chosen from the
athletes and members of the club, while the princess will be drawn from the student body.

The crown will be presented to the
new queen on the first day of the season.