Choose The Right Actors

Costing will begin and end tomorrow for one of the most important stages of production. The cast of a 10 sb working in four groups and will last all year. The cast will be elected in four groups, and the following is the list of actors.

The individual chosen may want to play both. They will be given two lines and must choose the part they want. They may also take the lead. They may choose to be in any part, depending on their interests. The only standard of the year which each of the four groups will direct will be that the selected actor must be in the cast.

Each and every student will have four weeks in which to cast for the upcoming year. Good candidates are available for all parts.

Students have demanded that the class "play" be expanded, and the group has the opportunity to have a hand in helping, simply by getting out the vote. The name, Jean, is quite unusual.

Those who are interested should vote. Those who are interested should be.

Homecoming Drama Goes On Very Late On Friday Night

The First ideas of a multicolored theme were first thought of by the Homecoming committee last week as they talked about the theme for the big dance. Most of the students were busy with other things.

But the idea had been circulating for quite some time, and the school had been waiting for something of the sort to come about. The dance was to be held on the first day of the week, and the committee was hard at work on the arrangements.

A Choral Center

I'm not sure if this is accurate, but it is likely that the group is trying to select a new leader for the Choral Center. The group is trying to select a new leader for the Choral Center.

The First day of the week, the students' choice was the girl's choice. The group's decision was the girls' choice. The group's decision was the girls' choice. The group's decision was the girls' choice. The group's decision was the girls' choice.

It's a good week for the Homecoming committee.
