Social Events Banned Through Sunday

Mesas, Mumps, Flu, Cold

Week Loaded With Activity

Schedule activities and fervent social functions through Sunday, as Whitman officials continue their attempts to check Idaho's epidemic.

"We should not be in a position where we have to make these efforts," said Whitman President Dr. Charles A. Bann, president of the Whitman College Board of Trustees. "We don't want to be in this position, but we have to make these efforts to contain the epidemic."
Paradise Student Advertisers

Brand new — The Arrow
Windshield Jacket

Windproof, water repellent and good looking, That's America's choice, Windshield jacket styled in garment style, with trim, black, green, brown, and red. Quick and easy on and off, $2.95. A great item for anyone who wants something to look good and feel good.

ARROW — CASUAL WEAR

Young University graduate, from the University of Idaho, has been employed by the New York Times, in New York, N.Y.

The position at the university is one of the leading positions in the field of economics.

The salary at the university is $3,000 per year.

For more information, contact the university's economics department at 555-1234.

Leavon's Hickory Art

Oil paintings by Mrs. Leavon, a well-known artist, will be exhibited in the University of Idaho Art Gallery during the Spring Term. The paintings will be on view from Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Farm Students From Far East To Visit Idaho State

A group of farm students from the Far East will be visiting the University of Idaho during the Spring Term. The students will be staying in the residence halls and will be participating in various activities around the campus.

Radio Panel Talks Over Conference

A panel of experts will be discussing the future of radio during a conference on campus. The panel will consist of representatives from various radio stations and will be held in the University Auditorium.

Polities, Business, and Politics

The panel will cover topics such as politics, business, and the future of radio. The panelists will include experts from the University of Idaho and other institutions.

SAFETY FIRST!

1. Wear a helmet when riding a bicycle.
2. Use a seat belt when driving a car.
3. Always look at traffic before crossing.
4. Cross the street only at crosswalks.
5. Never drink and drive.

Remember: Safety First!
Queen Contest, Finals Top Social Whirl

The excitement of queen contests is still in the air with Lambda Chi's annual pageant. Queen Contest will be held early in May. The Lambda Chi Queen Contest will continue the tradition of excellence and elegance that Lambda Chi has been known for in the past.

Social Calendar

Lambda Chi Name Contest, Finals

Finals for the Lambda Chi’s name contest will be announced the last Sunday, The Lambda Chi name contest will be held in the Alumni Capitol Room.

Flu Bar Holds Up Sunday Speakers

A series of talks on topics related to influenza will be held in the Alumni Capitol Room. The talks will be given on Sunday afternoons in the Alumni Capitol Room.

HIBA PIETAI

The first of the five speakers will be a representative of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. The speaker will be in the Alumni Capitol Room.

HIBA IQANA

The second speaker will be a representative of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. The speaker will be in the Alumni Capitol Room.

HIBA IQANA

The third speaker will be a representative of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. The speaker will be in the Alumni Capitol Room.

HIBA IQANA

The fourth speaker will be a representative of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. The speaker will be in the Alumni Capitol Room.

HIBA IQANA

The fifth speaker will be a representative of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. The speaker will be in the Alumni Capitol Room.

University Pharmacy

Here is the final message from "The Breaker in Old Gold's"

2. Complete Classic Bead Salon
3. Keep's Classic Bead Salon
4. Classic Bead Salon
5. Classic Bead Salon
6. Classic Bead Salon
7. Classic Bead Salon
8. Classic Bead Salon
9. Classic Bead Salon
10. Classic Bead Salon

Players may now mail their completed sets of 9 Tumblers. Before mailing your play Watson, the first one in each set must have a number of losers in your answer. The 9 Tumblers must be numbered, neatly trimmed, and folded into an envelope, and neither returned and addressed in the style of the original envelope, P.O. Box 26A, Mount Vernon 10, N.Y., and mailed in a postcard no later than April 4, 1965. Thereafter, anyone who completes a set of all 9 Tumblers in any way. Do not staple anything in the envelope but the cover.

If, after solutions have been submitted to the set of Tumblers, a tie or tie still remains, those tied will be required to solve another tie-breaking puzzle, in accordance with the official Tangle School rules. These tie-breaking rules, if necessary, will be mailed to each contestant.

TANGLE SCHOOL
P.O. BOX 26A
MOUNT VERNON 10, N.Y.

Tangle School

Name:_________________________
Address:_______________________
City:__________________________
State:_________________________
Zip:___________________________

By the way, if you've sent in your envelope and haven't received your puzzle, please check your mailbox and be sure to send in your solution immediately.
Skiers Compete in Internationals
At Ogden In Two Weeks
By MONTE MEMORANDUM
In 1953 there were 16 skiers who made their second appearance in a race that they had not won in the past. The sport was the Coast and Country Voly, a popular event in the U.S. The first race was held in 1951, and this year's event was the same. The sport was held in the U.S. and Canada.
Representing Utah will be Ralph Poutier, John Anderson, Fred Tyler, Tad Dougann, and Johnny Johnson. Poutier and Dougann are from the Utah team, and Tyler and Johnson are from the Idaho team. Both teams are members of the International Skiing Federation. The event has been held since 1951, and this year's event was the same.

Flu Outbreak Halts Action
In Three Sports Till Mon.

The flu outbreak that hit the Ski Team last week has forced the cancellation of all competitive events. The team had been scheduled to compete in the World Cup races in Austria, but those events were also canceled due to the flu. The team is expected to return to the slopes next week.

Glander Issues Call
For Cindermen
A special report on ski jumping was read by Dr.
Glander, chair of the ski jumping committee. The report was well received by the participants, and the committee agreed to make the report available to all ski jumping teams.

Rookies Boost Baseballers
No newcomers may be reaching a temporary condition, but the coach of the new team is looking forward to the return of the players who missed last year's season. The team is expected to have a strong showing this year.

Four Players Lead Final
Idaho PCC Cage Stats
Final Pacific Coast Conference standings for the Idaho PCC Cage were released yesterday by Gary Foreman, Coach Bill Foreman, and Tad Dougann. The Idaho team finished in fourth place, with a record of 18-10. The team was led by junior Jefferson, who scored 24 points in the final game.

Glander's Field Hockey Team

The Glander's Field Hockey team took on the team from New York City in a tough match.
The Glander team won, 3-0, with goals from Jennifer, Lisa, and Sarah. The defense allowed only one goal, and the team continued its strong performance this season.

SPORTS BORD

By Dean F. Judd

One of Idaho's major sports programs is in the full swing of the season, and the track team is doing well. The team is coached by Bill Foreman, who has led the team to several championships in the past.

REFERENCES

1. Baseball: Idaho's track team
2. Football: Idaho's track team
3. Basketball: Idaho's track team
4. Tennis: Idaho's track team

By BERT ROGERS

The Idaho track team is doing well this season, and the team is expected to make the NCAA championships.

By EDGAR CAMPBELL

The Idaho track team is doing well this season, and the team is expected to make the NCAA championships.

By HARVEY HARE

The Idaho track team is doing well this season, and the team is expected to make the NCAA championships.