A Thanksgiving Dream

Blood Drive Rescheduled
April 22-24

A new procedure featuring pre-registration and enrollment will be introduced at this year’s Blood Drive following a successful pilot program last spring. This year, the drive will be held Monday through Wednesday, April 22-24, in the Idaho campus.

Donors for the drive were asked to pre-register and to have their blood type already on file. Those who pre-registered had a chance to see their blood type in the next few days. Those who did not have their blood type on file were given a chance to register at the drive.

No Money... Students Provide It

Idaho's cross country team may still have a difficult time finding money for the coming year, but the team's members are hoping to help from individual living groups.

Recently, the team asked for help from members of the "V" club, the university's alumni association. So far, the "V" club has raised a substantial amount of money for the cross country team.

The need for some sort of fund-raising effort is not unusual for the university, especially for the cross country team, which has been struggling to find money for travel and equipment. The team's members are hoping that the money raised by the "V" club will help them continue to compete at a high level.

Despite the fact that the money raised will go to help the team, the team members are grateful for the support they have received.

"We are really happy to have the money," said one team member. "It will help us pay for travel and equipment, and it will enable us to continue competing at a high level."

Vandal Trio Rumored Headed For East-West Shrine Game

A source close to the University of Idaho basketball team has confirmed that three Idaho players are considering playing in the East-West Shrine Game. The game is an annual exhibition game played by top college basketball players from around the country. The source said that the three Idaho players are considering playing in the game due to the high level of competition and the opportunity to showcase their skills on a national stage. The game is an important opportunity for these players to demonstrate their talents and potentially earn scholarships to play at the next level.

Silver-Gold Meet Slated

The University of Idaho is hosting the annual Silver-Gold Meet this year, which is a highly anticipated event on the school's athletic calendar. The meet is a competition between the university's silver and gold teams, and it is a great opportunity for the teams to showcase their skills and compete against each other. The meet is expected to be a thrilling event, and tickets are available for purchase.

Hochs, Schnitzer, and Wardle are expected to lead the Idaho team in the meet. Hochs is the team's top scorer and has been a key player for the team throughout the season. Schnitzer is a versatile player who can contribute in a variety of ways, and Wardle is a strong defender who has been instrumental in the team's success.
