World Split On Red China Trade Issue

Red China: What Role in Asia?

W. Washington—Communists in the Chinese civil war triggered the first U.S. embargo of "strategic goods" which ultimately led to a Communist-controlled government in China. The United States has since announced it will not allow any shipment to China of "items the government of China, Chinese losses, and implements of war, atomic energy, petroleum, ..."
The China trade has had much effect on the Western world, and there has been deliberate and implemental efforts this year to keep China "out of the market" in the United States. Some of the major communication efforts include: 1) the United States is not on the government of China, Chinese losses, and implements of war, atomic energy, petroleum, ..."

PCC Discusses Basketball Schedule, Aid to Athletes

PCC to meet on next Wednesday, April 13 at 1 p.m. to hear about the basketball schedule for the 1988-89 season. The meeting also will discuss the possibility of providing athletic aid to College athletes.

The meeting will be held in the PCC cafeteria and is open to the public.

Dr. Edward H. Reed, PCC president, said the College is considering providing athletic aid to its basketball and other sports teams. "We want to make sure our athletes have the same opportunities as other college students," Reed said.

The College is also looking at ways to improve the basketball program. "We want to make sure our athletes have the best possible experience," Reed said.

The meeting will be held on the PCC campus in the cafeteria.

Central Oregon Student Athletes

Oregon State University will conduct an orientation session for Central Oregon Student Athletes on Wednesday, April 13 at 1 p.m. The session will be held in the OSU Elliott Auditorium.

The orientation will cover topics such as academics, athletics, and student life.

The session is open to all Central Oregon Student Athletes.

Oregon State University Athletics Department, Elliott Auditorium, 7:10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Vandal Guards On PCC Team

The Vandal Guards are scheduled to play a home game against the PCC team on Saturday, April 16 at 7:30 p.m. The game will be played at the PCC gymnasium. The game is expected to be a close one, with both teams having strong lineups.

The Vandal Guards are coached by Dave McDonald, who has been named the PCC Men's Basketball Coach. McDonald has a long history of coaching basketball at the college level.

Manager: Dave McDonald; Assistant Manager: Getsevich, deWinter, Daled, Hunsaker.

Simmons Top 'Little Man' PCC Scorers

The Vandal Guards defeated a PCC team on Saturday, April 16 by a score of 76-63. The Vandal Guards were led in scoring by Dave Simmons, who scored 20 points.

The PCC team was led in scoring by Mark Brown, who scored 10 points.

The Vandal Guards have now won three consecutive games, improving their record to 12-5 for the season. The PCC team, on the other hand, has lost three of its last four games, falling to 6-9 on the season.

Manager: Dave McDonald; Assistant Manager: Getsevich, deWinter, Daled, Hunsaker.
