The Seattle Symphony Orchestra's season opener, under the direction of Osmo Vänskä, will take place at 8 p.m. on Oct. 15.

Vänskä, who is the music director of the orchestra, will conduct the program, which includes works by Mahler, Prokofiev, and Tchaikovsky.

The concert will be held in the Seattle Convention Center's McCaw Hall.

Merrill Takes Big Step—Job Offer

Merrill Marshall, a senior at Vandalia High School, has accepted a job offer from Merrill Lynch & Co. in New York City.

Marshall was one of several Vandalia High School seniors who received job offers from major Wall Street firms this fall.

Book Collection Begins Library Display Series

The University of Idaho library will begin its first official display series on Oct. 18, featuring works by local authors.

The series will run through the end of the academic year and will feature books by local authors, including works by local historians, poets, and novelists.

The first book in the series will be "The Story of the University of Idaho," by local historian John H. Jones.

The deadline for entries is Oct. 25.

New Parking Lots Provide For 230 Cars

Parking space at the new lots is expected to increase by about 25 percent, from 1,500 to 1,750.

The new lots, located on the north and south sides of the campus, will be open to the public at all times.

Large Crowd Expected For ‘Battle Of Palouse’

A large crowd is expected to attend the "Battle of Palouse" game on Oct. 13.

The game will be played at 2 p.m. at the new stadium.

Idaho-WSC Fifth Quarter Rivalry Has Long History

The Idaho-WSC rivalry has a long and storied history.

The first game between the two teams was played in 1960.

The game has been played every year since then except for 1963, when the game was canceled due to the Civil War.

The game is one of the most anticipated events on the Idaho-WSC calendar.

Phil Delta Theta Observes 50th Anniversary

Phi Delta Theta, the oldest national fraternity on campus, will celebrate its 50th anniversary this year.

The fraternity was founded in 1876 at the University of Idaho.

The fraternity's 50th anniversary celebration will include a series of events throughout the year.

The first event will be held on Oct. 20.

About 4,000 people are expected to attend.

Greeks To Speak

Several national officers of the fraternity will speak at the formal banquet Friday night at the hotel.

The banquet will be held at 7 p.m.

Philadelphia Football Player Bob Probst, Idaho-WSC's head coach, will speak at the banquet.

Probst is expected to address the students, alumni, and faculty who attended the game.

"Although Phi Delta Theta claims itself to be a "prestige" fraternity, Kappa Sig was the first to hold a formal banquet," Chester explained.

Bryce Bennett To Be Conference Keynote Speaker

Bryce Bennett, a national keynote speaker, will address the students, alumni, and faculty on Oct. 20.

The event will be held at 7 p.m.

Bennett is expected to speak on the topic of "The Future of the Economy."

Squad Gets 1st Win Of Year With Strong Defense Show

Led by a powerful and swift defensive line, the University of Idaho Vandals cashed in for their first win of the season against the cellar-dwelling University of Utah.

The Vandals rumbled over the Utes, 42-7.

The second quarter was the high point for the Vandals and Idaho head coach Gary Randall. Hall kicked his way into the Utah zone and later saw his own conversion for the 32-7 halftime lead.

Randall tallied the first touchdown of the game, but the game would be for naught as the Vandals were shut out in the second half.
