Field Of Coeds To Be Reduced In IK Contest

A field of 29 coeds, who are competing for Miss University of Idaho honors, will be trimmed to 10 on April 17 and 18 in preparation for the 3rd annual Sun's Central Bank Scholarship Contest.

Miss Idaho SUN Scholarship Committee member Bob Gilby, effectively costumed as President Ford, will be the tie-ins in a scoring-driven, gutterball, and oil-and-water competition.

Misses will be trimmed one at a time to the final 10 by the lawmakers of the beauty council, not a public search committee.

The law will be presented at the University auditorium May 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 for students and 15 cents for non-students.

At the preliminary contest, future admirers, costume pretender, and talent will be judged. There will be a drill for the 15 scoring-driven, gutterball, and oil-and-water competition.

The SUN Scholarship Committee will assist the local Ball and Chain magazine; campus winners will compete for the regional IK queen on April 22. Five winners will be the eligible candidates for the title of All-American, Miss Idaho SUN scholarship, and Miss Idaho SUN Scholarship contestant.

Can U.S. Outrun Reds Economically?

Inflation, Unemployment, Debt:
Rated Other Primary Problems

WASHINGTON — How fast should the U.S. economy grow in the 1970's and how might U.S. priorities change both at home and overseas if the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. both take off? That was the problem of the American Economic Association's meeting here last week.

Inflation, unemployment, and debt were the three major problems of concern, but others were mentioned as well.

The meeting came just as the U.S. government was trying to determine how fast it should raise the nation's economic growth. A new presidential advisory group, the Council of Economic Advisers, has been asked to study how fast the U.S. should try to achieve its economic goals.

Inflation, unemployment, and debt have been major problems of concern.
