Two-Way Debut
Visitors To Aid Ag Science Conference

The Idaho's first Ag Science Day Saturday will be given an extra boost by the 500 or so visitors who will tour the campus and attend the Ag show as a part of the 10th of the Month. The Ag show is planned to "interest and attract" the following day for the weekend.

About 100 different exhibits will be developed by the Agriculture faculty to illustrate the various subjects covered in the Science Day.

Demonstrations vary from production processes to the truth in television and radio programs. All will be scheduled for 9 to 10:30 a.m.

Visitors to Tour Campus

The Ag Science Day will be opened with a student tour of the campus at 8 a.m. The tour will be conducted by the Ag Science Club, and the students will be selected by the Ag Science Club chairman.

The tour meeting will take place in the Student Center at 7:30 a.m. Students are encouraged to make reservations for transportation to the tour by calling the Ag Science Club office at 771-3335.

A final list of tours will be released by the Ag Science Club on May 8.
