Gamma Phi's Celeste Jones Chosen Homecoming Queen

The Idaho Argonaut
October 11, 1969

amma Phi's Ceci Jones, a blonde, eyed Gamma Phi junior from Twin Falls, Idaho, has been chosen Homecoming Queen with 48 votes. Celeste Jones, who also received the royal reign with a whirlwind of activities over the past weekend, will make her court appearance today. Her first stop will be to attend the annual Powder Puff game, the Medium Field at 2 p.m.

The royal and her attendants will ride in a special queen's float during the parade, which will begin at 4 p.m. and end at the stadium.

Members of the Powder Puff committee will mill around the queen's float and present her with flowers and a banner. The queen will then preside over the annual Homecoming Dance, which will begin at 9 p.m. in the Student Center on the campus of the College of Idaho.

United Party Elects Linwood, Thomas Heads

By HERB BOLINGER

The Idaho Argonaut
October 11, 1969

In preparation for the coming November election, the United Party elected two new officers to help to carry the party's message. Linwood M. Dall and Larry Thompson, respectively, were nominated chairman and treasurer, in that new post, as both regular members of the committee and are charged with the duties of the party.

Debaters Start Work On Topic From National

By ROBERT RICHARDSON

The Idaho Argonaut
October 11, 1969

Two-house debate team members David Brown, sophomore, and Charles Brown, junior, have been assigned to debate on the topic of "The Federal Reserve System," a topic that will be debated in the National Forensics League.
Newman Club Holds Its Inquiry Classes

Newman Club is antiguating a huge group of alumni, at the Monday ballot issue at 4 p.m. at the Newman Club House, before Monday night and Tuesday. This is the last opportunity to learn a little more about the Catholic Church and to get your questions answered, according to Father Beasor is just one week. Monday at 5 p.m. at the Newman Club House.

Initiation for new members will be May 16.

Publicity Film Of University Is Released

Over a year in the making, the color film depicting the University, has recently Sensational—almost unique in its type—has gone throughout the nation for free. The price is $1.00 in the University, and it is being shown at all the moveable screens. The price is $1.00 in the University, and it is being shown at all the moveable screens. The price is $1.00 in the University, and it is being shown at all the moveable screens. The price is $1.00 in the University, and it is being shown at all the moveable screens.

Missed Articles Cause Frustration For Bonfire Volunteers

By JOHNNY KELLOGG

Even though students weren't in uniforms, they still tried to look neat. Every student who joined the bonfire parade was dressed in most anything they could find. They were too busy preparing for the event to care how they looked.

Weave's Day Has 9 Chairmen

A new day was started Monday with the first day of school. The day was a day of celebration and excitement for all students.

Newspaper, October 11, 1960
Luckless Vandals Still Winless

Aggie Backs Run At Will Through Idaho Defenses

By JIM HERNON

ROSE—Idaho, with a well balanced running attack, backed the Vandals that had the ball in the final quarter. Vandals, after a good first half, grabbed the ball and ran away with it.

The Vandals scored their first touchdown in the second quarter after a good running play by Willis. The Vandals were down to 16-8 at that point, but they scored twice more in the quarter.

The Vandals, after a good running play by Willis, were down 16-8 at that point, but they scored twice more in the quarter.

The Vandals scored their first touchdown in the second quarter after a good running play by Willis. The Vandals were down to 16-8 at that point, but they scored twice more in the quarter.

The Vandals scored their first touchdown in the second quarter after a good running play by Willis. The Vandals were down to 16-8 at that point, but they scored twice more in the quarter.

The Vandals scored their first touchdown in the second quarter after a good running play by Willis. The Vandals were down to 16-8 at that point, but they scored twice more in the quarter.