Idaho Takes ACU Award

Bowie Talks On Cold War

Robert Bowie, Bruch Foundation head, who gave the gold medal of the 1960 Olympic Games, was speaking about the Olympic spirit and the importance of the athletes' contribution to society.

The second public lecture sponsored by the American Athletic Foundation for the benefit of the New York Athletic Club was held on Tuesday, November 1, 1960 at the New York Athletic Club.

The audience was composed of prominent athletes from the United States, including several Olympic champions, and the lecture was moderated by Johnnie Cochrane, the former Olympic visitor to the Soviet Union.

The lecture was titled "The Olympic Spirit" and was given by Robert Bowie, a former Olympic wrestler and the head of the Bruch Foundation.

Bowie spoke about the importance of the Olympic spirit and the role of athletes in promoting peace and international understanding.

He emphasized the significance of the Olympic Games as a platform for promoting understanding and cooperation among nations.

Bowie also discussed the challenges and pressures that athletes face, and he highlighted the importance of mental and physical preparation for peak performance.

He ended his lecture with a call to action, encouraging everyone to support the Olympic spirit and to work towards a more peaceful and harmonious world.

The lecture was followed by a question-and-answer session, where Bowie answered questions from the audience and discussed various topics related to the Olympic Games and the Olympic spirit.

The lecture was well received by the audience, and there was a lot of interest in the topics discussed by Bowie.

The lecture was recorded and is available for viewing on the American Athletic Foundation's website.
Moscow Panhandle Elects Officers, Plans Xmas Ball

The Moscow Panhandle Christmas Ball, scheduled for October 25 in the Student Center, was opened with new officers for the coming year Wednesday, October 16. The organization now has 48 members, with President Jim Lott, secretary-treasurer, Bill Cook, and two assistant secretaries, Betty Eubanks and Robert Hunter.

The new officers are: President, Jim Lott; first vice-president, Betty Eubanks; second vice-president, Robert Hunter; secretary-secretary, Lynda Sorensen; student advisor, Pat Kennedy; and assistant secretaries, Edith Edwards and Peggy McCallum.

Dances Keep Calendars Full

By GREGORY MILLER, KARLA BACON

The first week of fall has proved the most active for social events on campus with the first week of fall activities scheduled for this Thursday, October 25.

Thursday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Alpine Gala” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door.

The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Friday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Skiing to the Rockies” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door.

The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Saturday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Skating on the Ice” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door.

The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Sunday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Fishing in the falls” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door.

The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Moscow Panhandle Elects Officers, Plans Xmas Ball

The Moscow Panhandle Christmas Ball, scheduled for October 25 in the Student Center, was opened with new officers for the coming year Wednesday, October 16. The organization now has 48 members, with President Jim Lott, secretary-treasurer, Bill Cook, and two assistant secretaries, Betty Eubanks and Robert Hunter.

The new officers are: President, Jim Lott; first vice-president, Betty Eubanks; second vice-president, Robert Hunter; secretary-secretary, Lynda Sorensen; student advisor, Pat Kennedy; and assistant secretaries, Edith Edwards and Peggy McCallum.

Dances Keep Calendars Full

By GREGORY MILLER, KARLA BACON

The first week of fall has proved the most active for social events on campus with the first week of fall activities scheduled for this Thursday, October 25.

Thursday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Alpine Gala” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Friday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Skiing to the Rockies” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Saturday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Skating on the Ice” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Sunday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Fishing in the falls” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Moscow Panhandle Elects Officers, Plans Xmas Ball

The Moscow Panhandle Christmas Ball, scheduled for October 25 in the Student Center, was opened with new officers for the coming year Wednesday, October 16. The organization now has 48 members, with President Jim Lott, secretary-treasurer, Bill Cook, and two assistant secretaries, Betty Eubanks and Robert Hunter.

The new officers are: President, Jim Lott; first vice-president, Betty Eubanks; second vice-president, Robert Hunter; secretary-secretary, Lynda Sorensen; student advisor, Pat Kennedy; and assistant secretaries, Edith Edwards and Peggy McCallum.

Dances Keep Calendars Full

By GREGORY MILLER, KARLA BACON

The first week of fall has proved the most active for social events on campus with the first week of fall activities scheduled for this Thursday, October 25.

Thursday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Alpine Gala” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Friday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Skiing to the Rockies” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Saturday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Skating on the Ice” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Sunday night will see the return of the fall season with the annual “Fishing in the falls” at the Idaho Union Building. A $1.50 cover charge will be charged at the door. The event will feature a variety of music, dance, and food. The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.
Gatiss-It Causes Idaho Loss To COP

Reg Carolan: Idaho's Future Olympic Decathalon Champ?

By GARY RANALD

Carolans' boiling point was about to explode. Idaho coach Don Rimington was coming to the end of a post-game press conference, and Carolan was feeling the heat.

"If you think Carolan is going to sit down and take this stuff, you're wrong," Rimington said.

The reason for Carolan's ire was the Pacific-10 Conference's decision to move the Idaho-Maryland game up two days, to Thursday night. Carolan, who is expected to compete in the 1980 Olympic Games in the decathlon, said he was upset because he was scheduled to fly out of town for a crucial weekend of track meets.

"I don't feel I'm being treated fairly," Carolan said.

Carolans' coach, Jeff Perlitz, said he was disappointed with the conference's decision.

"We're facing a big schedule," Perlitz said. "The conference decided to move the game up to Thursday night so we could have more TV exposure."

The Idaho-Maryland game was scheduled for Friday night.

"We're not being treated fairly," Carolan said. "I'm not going to take this stuff."