SJR 6: Had The Course

The 1960 election was tough-nosed news. The voters had their choices, and they were either acknowledging several years of consolidation, or they were electing candidates who would continue the consolidation, or they were electing candidates who would continue the consolidation. Idaho's voters spoke their minds about the four proposed constitutional amendments, and the results were as follows:

- Amendment A failed by a narrow margin.
- Amendment B passed with a large majority.
- Amendment C was rejected by a narrow margin.
- Amendment D was rejected by a large majority.

These results were seen as a mandate for continued consolidation in Idaho.

Dictatorship? It's Yours

One thing about living under a dictatorship is that you know exactly where the power lies. At Idaho State, the rules that govern your way of living are set by the professors. The professors decide what you can and cannot do, and the students have little control over their own lives. Even the professors don't have much control over their own lives, as they are controlled by the administrators. The whole system is based on fear and control, and everyone is constantly watching and trying to maintain order.

Fall Is Festive, Fall Is Pretty, And Dad Says, What A Pity!

Fall is a festive season at the University. The fall colors of the trees and the crisp air make for a wonderful time. The university is also offering classes for the fall semester, and many students are taking advantage of this opportunity to continue their education.

Dear Dean

Dear Jason

Dear Friends

Dealing with the student recruitment and other issues at the university can be a challenge. We want to make sure that our students have the best possible experience. That's why we take the time to listen to their concerns and work to address them.

Zoring in on the future

At Idaho State University, we are committed to developing a strong community of scholars. We believe that everyone should have equal opportunities to participate in all aspects of university life. This year, we have expanded our efforts to support students from underrepresented backgrounds. We offer a range of programs and support services to help students succeed.

We are dedicated to providing a safe and inclusive environment for all students. We are proud of the work we do and the impact we make on the lives of our students. Thank you for being part of the Idaho State University community.

At Christmas, the whole school is in the mood for entertainment and in anticipation of the holiday season. The traditions of singing carols, decorating trees, and exchanging gifts envelops everyone in the spirit of the season. However, with the end of the school year approaching, it is time to look ahead to the new year and the opportunities it will bring.

Go to Paul Marzullo, pledge class sponsor, for information on how to become a member of the Academic Honor Society or the National Honor Society. Mr. Marzullo said, “I believe that if we can help students achieve their goals, they will be more likely to succeed in college and beyond.”

The gathering room was packed with students and teachers who had gathered to celebrate the end of the school year. The music played softly as everyone enjoyed the delicious food that had been prepared by the school's culinary team.

Awards were presented to the outstanding students of the year. These awards were the result of hard work and dedication, and were a testament to the achievements of these exceptional students.

The students of the year were:

- Jennifer Smith, for her hard work and dedication to the school community.
- David Johnson, for his outstanding academic performance.
- Emily Brown, for her leadership and commitment to the arts.
- Robert Wilson, for his contribution to the athletic department.

The awards were presented by the school's principal, who praised these students for their hard work and dedication. The principal said, “These students have shown us what it means to be a true student, and I am proud of each and every one of them.”

The night ended with a bang as everyone enjoyed the fireworks that were put on by the school's fireworks team. The students and teachers were all smiles as they looked up at the sky and watched the fireworks light up the night.

The end of the school year is bittersweet, but it is also a time to celebrate the achievements of these outstanding students. The school community is looking forward to the new year and the opportunities it will bring.

The school year is almost over, and the students are eagerly awaiting the spring break. However, before they can enjoy the break, they have to endure the final exams. The students are busy studying and reviewing their notes to prepare for the exams. They are all hoping to do their best on the exams and earn good grades.

The exam schedule is as follows:

- Math: Tuesday, February 25, 2020
- Science: Wednesday, February 26, 2020
- English: Thursday, February 27, 2020
- History: Friday, February 28, 2020

The students are also looking forward to the spring break, which is scheduled to start on March 1, 2020. They are planning to take some time off to relax and enjoy their favorite activities.

The spring break will last for two weeks, and the students will have the opportunity to travel and explore new places. They are also planning to spend some time with their families and friends.

The school year will end on April 29, 2020, and the students will be awarded their diplomas at the graduation ceremony. They are all looking forward to this special day and are excited to celebrate their achievements.

In conclusion, the students are looking forward to a successful end to the school year. They are working hard to prepare for the exams and are planning for a fun-filled spring break. The school community is excited for the upcoming graduation ceremony and the start of the new school year.

Vandal Freshmen Win Second Blocked Kick, Late Score Gives Victory To Idaho

By Jim HERRON
Assistant Sports Editor

FULLMAN, Nov. 11—Vandal Rube and Harold Maudlin salvaged an 18-13 victory for the Vandals with about three minutes left in the game when they blocked a punt and recovered it on the 10-yard line.

The Vandals, who had not scored since a 24-yard touchdown pass from John Dobbins to Pat Smith on the second play of the game, did not threaten the Bobcats defense very much until the final minute when they were able to recover the punt.

With two minutes left in the game, the score was 13-13 and the Vandals were on the Bobcats one-yard line. Then Howard Maudlin was brought in as the punter and he hit a short punt which was recovered at the 10-yard line by Harold Maudlin.

The Vandals, after trying to move to the goal line, were penalized for an unpenalized foul and had to play from the 15-yard line. Still, however, they were able to score on a four-yard touchdown pass from John Dobbins to Rube and get the two-point conversion to win the game.

The Vandals were led by Howard Maudlin, who had 185 yards rushing, and John Dobbins, who had 179 yards passing. The Bobcats were led by Fred Marshall, who had 159 yards rushing, and John Dobbins, who had 179 yards passing.

Cipriano And Anderson Praise Teams After Saturday Evening Scrimmages

By ALDEN HART
Assistant Sports Writer

The most prominent find in the Idaho-WSU game was Bobcats back-up quarterback, Jim Davis. Davis, who was brought into the game in the second quarter, replaced injured starter, Steve Anderson, and led the Bobcats to a 13-7 victory.

Davis, who had been playing with the second team all season, went in for the second time in the fourth quarter and led the Bobcats to a 7-0 lead. He then went in for the second time in the fifth quarter and led the Bobcats to a 7-0 lead.

The Vandals were able to score on a two-yard touchdown pass from John Dobbins to Pat Smith on the second play of the game. Dobbins, who had 185 yards rushing, and John Dobbins, who had 179 yards passing, were the Vandals' top scorers.

The Bobcats were led by Fred Marshall, who had 159 yards rushing, and John Dobbins, who had 179 yards passing.

Vandal Fan Men Continue Practice

The Portland squad is in Idaho for their annual fall practice. The fans are welcomed to the team on an cord-and-official. The Vandals are winning every game and are ranked second in the west.

There has been some talk of the program and the present schedule. The team has been playing well and the team also wants to play against a team that will be ready for a state championship. Picnic Grounds is in the west.

COUGARS WIN PALOUSE BATTLE

Idaho Leads At Halftime But Lincoln's Touchdown Puts WSU Out In Front

By Jim Herndon

The Bench

1. Vandals Were Big As Life,
But Won’t Be Featured There

Well, we come now to something that Idaho fans might be glad to hear and Boise fans might be glad not to. You can consider that Idaho had a near miss late in the fourth quarter when the Vandal drive was way down on the Cougars 28-yard line. As far as will remember, LIEF printed a feature article in 24 when Idaho won the Bluebonnet Classic.
I don’t know if we can call this a major venue, but it has the appearance of the mountains with the classic snow-capped peaks behind the Idaho fans.

While we are on the subject of mountains, the Vandal fans were there to see what they are like. They have to be, as they have been suffering under the same situation for the last 40 years.

Something should also be said about the T-4 Frisch win over the Cougars. Frisch gives the Vandals a third win in 5 losses for their season. The Cougars will be looking for some type of spring at Spring Hill.

Douglas Finally Loses; Cross Country
Team Third In 7 Team Competition

The University of Idaho
Cross Country team was unsuccessful in their race. They lost 2-1 to the Washington State
Cross-Country Invitational
on the Hickey’s hand-rolling Di’s course. This was the only competition for other blast in.

Hooted Squeal

The University of Idaho
and the Cougars were blistered by a 12-11 score. The Orioles vs. Idaho was the second of 25 games between the two teams. Idaho won 12 points by Idaho and lost 9 points by Orioles.

Douglas Falls Yet

Douglas Falls into the second quarter of the season. The Cougars vs.
Owensboro is the only
date ahead of Washington State. The Cougars won 30 points by Idaho and lost 28 points
by Owensboro.
