'Queen of Violets' Crowned Friday; Plans Begin for Halloween Parties

Topping the list of the week's activities was the crowning Friday of the 'Queen of Violets,' selected by the senior class of the Argonaut. The pageant was held in the rear of the Argonaut's office.

Barber's dance ball occupied the ballroom for the week. On Saturday, the Senior Ball was held in the Argonaut's office. The dance was sponsored by the Business Administration Club and the Argonaut.

The Senior Ball was held in the Argonaut's office. The dance was sponsored by the Business Administration Club and the Argonaut.

House Lawmaker Talks To Students About Agriculture

Congressman D. O. Deutch, Democratic representative from North Carolina, will speak at 7 p.m. today in Room 12 of the Agricultural Science building. The meeting is sponsored by the Dormitory Association and the House Association.

Deutch is a member of the Agriculture committee and has been working on legislation related to agricultural education.

Parents' Workshop Begins Next Monday

A Parents' Workshop is scheduled for next Monday, November 12. The workshop will be held in the Argonaut's office. The workshop is designed for parents of students enrolled in the college.

Civic Dance Festival

This weekend, the Civic Dance Festival is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the Argonaut's office. The festival is sponsored by the Argonaut and the Student Council.

Maxine's

Have you seen it yet? the excitement, the newness, the thrill of Moscow's smart new store for women... for you!

Here are the most-wanted wearables of America... the names and the styles and the fabrics you've seen in every fashion magazine... now to be found, stepping from these pages into life, at Maxine's! Plan your visit now... this week... and certainly, you'll thrill to this showing of the newest and finest in apparel for you! We promise you!
Bob Haines

Injuries Hamper Frosh Footballers

Franklin, Idaho — Frosh footballers here were forced to shave their legs today because they were unable to avoid the 12:30 p.m. game for the championship in a 30 yard match.

Jim Cameron, Idaho, was forced to shave his legs ahead of the first half of the game against the Argonauts, the championship.

Campbell, Dripps

Play for Campus Golf Championship

Southport Bob Campbell and Morgan Dripps are the remaining survivors in the A.U. Sunken Golf Tournament. The two men are the only ones left to play for the championship in a 30 yard match at the A.U. Sunken Golf Tournament.

Idaho-WSC Football History: Remembered By Old Graduate

[Brief articles about various Idaho-WSC football games and events]